NUMBER 43. OCTOBER 25, 1907, NORWAY, MAINE. VOLUME XXXVIII

THE EVERETT JURY DISAGREE

FINAL VOTE 7 TO 5 FOR CONVICTION

EVERETT'S BAIL FIXED AT $5,000

Will be Tried at Next Term

Tuesday morning the court gave his charge to the jury in the Everett case. This occupied about half an hour. It was in part as follows:

I instruct you that in this case the evidence would not justify you in returning a verdict of manslaughter as has been suggested by the State. You must either bring a verdict of guilty or not guilty of murder. I instruct that if you find that the explosion occurred within the building this respondent is not guilty. There is no claim he is guilty under this circumstance.

In speaking of the piece of fuse found with a stone on it the court said, "It is very difficult to resist the suspicion that a human agency placed the stone on the fuse."

The testimony shows there was no blood on the point of the knife but that there was blood on the handle and on the blade near the handle. Under these circumstances it is easy to infer how the blood stains were made by the knife getting into the blood spots. He dwelt on the other various points of the case in a similar manner.

At about 3.10 Tuesday afternoon the jury came in for instructions on two points. One was relating to the insurance policies and the other as to whether there were one or two medical experts who testified in the case. On this last matter the court informed them that Dr. Bradbury testified as to the cut in the throat but Dr. Littlefield did not.

The court also stated that he had been informed, though he could hardly believe it, that he had not clearly informed them as to the meaning of the term, "beyond a doubt." This he more fully explained to them saying that in this regard they should consider the evidence and be satisfied without a reasonable doubt as they would in a business transaction. They then again retired to the jury room.

At the opening of court, Wednesday morning, the jury came in and reported a disagreement. The court told them that their minds should be kept open, even if they had made up their minds, should be able to change if they see that they were wrong. In this case it seems as though you could not fail to come to a conclusion. After a short talk they were asked to retire again.

A few minutes after 11 o'clock Wednesday, a communication was handed the court by the attending officer. After a few minutes' consideration the court ordered the officer to bring the jury in. They reported a disagreement. The court stated that he was sorry that they could not agree but that as it was he excused the special jurors from further service and the few regular jurors that served were to report Thursday morning.

It is understood that they stood five for acquittal and seven for conviction.

A hearing was held, Wednesday afternoon, to see if Everett would be admitted to bail while waiting for trial. The court decided that he should be allowed bail and fixed the amount at $5000. This decision was a great surprise to the legal lights, for it was not supposed that a man charged with murder under the circumstances that surround this case could be admitted to bail.

Supreme Judicial Court.

October Term, 1907.

Philip De Coteau plead guilty to single sale and was sentenced to pay $50 and costs of $26 77.

Truman Soule on charge of single sale, plead guilty and was sentenced to pay $50 and costs of $24.99.

Vito Buccuia and Gioussi Cocolie of Rumford, charged with liquor nuisance, plead guilty. Hon. Geo. D. Bisbee appeared for them. They were each sentenced to pay $100 and costs of $15.41.

Louis Olum of Auburn plead guilty to receiving stolen goods and was sentenced to pay $100 and costs of $52.96.

Roland McPhee of Rumford, nuisance, paincipal and sureties were defaulted. Abram Klain and Joseph Mitchell were the sureties.

Larry Roux plead guilty to a charge of forgery and was given 11 months in jail.

Guiseppe (Joseph) Regitano an Italian charged with assault and battery on another Italian at Rumford Falls was tried Tuesday afternoon. Several witnesses were heard, some of them not understanding English, an interpreter was required. County Attorney Barnes for the state. No counsel appeared for the respondent. After being out for a few minutes the jury brought in a verdict of guilty of felonous assault. Sentence was one year at hard labor in the State prison at Thomaston.

Vito Prouesti of Rumford was sentenced to $100 and costs on a charge of larceny.

William Bragg on a charge of common assault was given 90 days.

Ernest White, whose home is at Jay Bridge, but who works at Rumford Falls was before the court charged with the larceny of a watch valued at $8 and clothing valued at $7. White is but 16 years old. The court gave him good advice and asked him if he thought that if he did him a favor now he could do better in the future. The boy thought that he could. The court told him that if he kept straight for two years and there was no criminal offense brought against him in that time at the end of the two years this case would be nol prossed.

The case of Fred E. Tucker of Rumford Falls on a nuisance charge was tried Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Barnes opened the case for the State. F. J. McCarthy for respondent. Several witnesses were called.

J. Hastings Bean, register of deeds, was called to show that Tucker had deeds of property on Canal street. Mr. McCarthy stated that they did not deny the ownership and Mr. Bean was excused.

Harris L. Elliott, deputy sheriff, testified as to what he had found at Tucker's place. Had inspected the Internal revenue records at Portsmouth and found a license granted for 85 Canal steeet. Was not taken out in name of Fred E. Tucker. License was in name of George E. Siddall. Seen several men tending bar there since Jan. 15.

Cross examined. Stated he had received samples of beer for analysis. Were analyzed by Prof. Robinson, showed over 2 per cent.

Eben A. Poor, deputy sheriff, had seen numbers of men at the place, some of them showing signs of intoxication. Beer in plain bottles.

L. P. Merrill, police official. Canal street is on his beat, had seen men at Tucker's. Seen several different men tending bar. Seen Tucker behind bar.

F. A. Brooks, policeman, assisted in search of Tucker place, March 25. Mr. Tucker was not in town.

Mr. McCarthy stated as to Mr. Tucker having any interest in the business there, that the place was rented to George E. Siddall, who took out the license.

Fred E. Tucker took the stand and testified that he owned the building at 85 Canal street. Leased building to George E. Siddall in March, 1907. Charles Kenedy was there before Siddall. Building houses in Rumford Falls. Keeps his safe in building at 85 Canal street. Stated that single sale he was arrested for was not made in building. Carried a man a half pint of brandy as a favor.

Cross examined. Been year since he was in rum business. Was in Boston during March term and in Canada during May term of court. Jan. 15 to Mar. 1 he was in shop. Had license to sell malt liquors.

About four o'clock all available evidence being in, Mr. McCarthy made his plea to the jury, also Mr. Barnes. The case went to the jury and they returned a verdict of guilty. Sentence was not given at the time.

Court Notes.

Llewellyn J. Lewis, who testified as to the smell of the fuse found at the Crocker hill mine, stating that it could not have been exposed to the weather long, was almost immediately discharged after he stepped from the witness stand by Mr. Brown, owner of the mine. It appears that Mr. Brown is firm in his convictions of Everett's innocence.

Charles J. Harmon, indicted for larceny, retracted and pleaded guilty, and on his paying the costs the case was continued for a year, and he was allowed to go.

Thursday morning Everett had not secured bail.

Broke His Leg.

William Wentworth, who was working for Anson and Frank Millett, fell from a tree while picking apples a week ago last Tuesday and broke his left leg. Both large bones and the small one were broken. He was at once taken to Orrin Stiles', where he makes his home on Cottage street, and the injury was attended by the physicians. While he is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, it will be some time before he gets around again. His mother, Mrs. Knight, from Haverhill, Mass., has been to see him, returning to her home the first of the week.

Zora Klain, who travels for a New York clothing house, called upon his father, Morris Klain, Sunday.

Iza Pike played the organ at the M. E. church, Sunday. The organist, Mrs. J. D. Cragin, is on her vacation.

Mina S. Jewett has accepted a position in St. Paula's hospital, Boston. She has charge of the operating room.

The Old Dairy Homestead Co., a company made up of Norway young people, played at West Paris last Saturday evening.

Clara Whalan has returned from her four weeks' vacation and has resumed her position as head waiter at the Beal's hotel.

Bert Black, who has been in Boston the past week, returned on Monday and has resumed work at O. M. Cummings' stable.

Lyman Rollins of Cobb Divinity school of Lewiston preached at the Congregational church, Sunday. Mr. Rideout was away.

Will Harmon is seriously ill with Bright's disease. His mother, who lives with him, is also sick and confined to her room.

Hamlin Lodge, K. of P., of South Paris is to visit Pennesseewassee Lodge, K. of P., Thursday evening, Oct. 24, and confer the rank of Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox have returned from Somerville, Mass., where they have been visiting their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Harris.

Winn McKay, who drove the ice cart for C. E. Russell the past summer, is now working on board U. S. lighthouse tender Lilac running from Portland Harbor.

Edwin Thompson of Maple street has just presented the Pythian Sisters with a fine picture of his deceased wife, which they have hung in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Ward and daughter, Kate, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hirst, Charles and Almon Hirst of Welchville, Sunday, at their cottage by the lake.

Mrs. Abbie Millett.

Mrs. Abbie Jane Gary Millett, wife of Justus I. Millett, died at her home on Cottage street, Monday. She was the daughter of John and Sarah Jane (Stevens) Millett and was born in Woodstock, Nov. 17, 1833. She was educated in the schools of Paris and Norway. When a child she lived in Paris and Greenwood, but since about eight years old has lived in Norway.

July 13, 1873, she was married to Mr. Millett. Besides her husband there are several children who mourn her loss:—Annie L., who married Waldo H. Tilton and resides in Haverhill, Mass.; Alton of Rockford Center; Mabel G., who married Henry Day and lives in Haverhill, Mass.; Jerome F., Ethel M., E. Myrtle, Caroline Beryl and Gerald Frank, who are all at home.

Other immediate relatives are her stepmother, Mrs. Ellen Gary, of Pleasant street, a brother, Joseph Gary of Watertown, Mass., a half sister, Mrs. Frank Haskell of Pleasant street, and a half brother, William Gary, of Bethel.

Mrs. Millett was a member of the Universalist church, Pythian Sisterhood, New England Order of Protection and Veranda club. In these she was an active member and has occupied various offices in them.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Universalist church, the pastor, Rev. S. G. Davis, officiating. The floral offerings were beautiful.

Caught Killing Sheep.

Alpheus Lovejoy, who owns the N. W. Millett farm, caught two dogs killing his sheep right in the act. One was a large black dog, the other a large yellow one. They work as a team. The black dog catches the sheep by the hind legs and holds it. The yellow dog catches the sheep by the throat, pulls it down, tears and kills it. At that particular time the dogs had killed one sheep and had got another down. They fired at the dogs and knocked the yellow one over and thought they had killed him but he got up and both are now at large on "leg bail." They did not know the dogs nor who owns them. More than a hundred sheep have been killed in that vicinity.

The farmers have been out nights in hopes to see the dogs that were doing the mischief. These cold nights some of the men have been out in the sheep pastures with their fur overcoats and heavy mittens on.

Irving Frost is at work on a foundation for George W. Hobbs at the Howard place on Pike's hill.

The W. R. C. ladies will have an apron sale and supper at G. A. R. hall, Wednesday, Oct. 30. Supper at 6.30.

The Norway high school junior class cleared $15 at their supper at Concert hall besides having a fine time.

Mrs. O. N. Bradbury entertains the Browning club Thursday evening. Reading from the Bay View magazine.

The reserved seats for the high school musical entertainment go on sale at the Opera House this Saturday evening.

O. L. Stone supplied the pulpit at the Baptist church on Paris Hill last Sabbath and will supply at the same church next Sabbath.

Caro E. Beveridge and Grace M. Dudley went on the early train, Thursday morning, to attend the teacher's convention at Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs F. E. Danforth returned, Tuesday, from Mattapoisett, Mass., where they visited Mrs. Danforth's sister, Mrs. Pliny Allen.

Dr. Albert Thompson is putting in a stone foundation for his boathouse near the Pennesseewassee outlet. The crew have laid off work because of high water.

Mary A. Stone, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Henry, at Rumford Falls, has returned home and gone to work in the stitching room of the shoe factory.

Mrs. Ed Walker and Mrs. Charles Warthouse of Fryeburg have visited at Mr. and Mrs. Jason Marr's and Mrs. Marcia B. Charles. They drove a team across country.

One of our places of business has this sign on the door, "out for two weeks." The next door neighbor receives many inquiries as to when that two weeks will be up.

Ed Boucher and Lewis Fogg were invited by Guy Carter to his camp on Lary brook, Gilead, last week. They remained several days and had a good time but got no deer.

W. L. Merrill was called to his home in Brownville this week to attend his sister's funeral. This is the second sister who has died of consumption in a little more than a year.

Mrs. Nettie Millett and Elizabeth Murray, who have been visiting in Boston and vicinity, also visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Adams on Pigeon Hill, are now in Massachusetts for the winter.

There will be a social gathering at the Baptist church this Thursday evening. This gathering is partly for the purpose of getting better acquainted. They hope you will come and help others who may be there to have a pleasant time. If there are those who do not attend church elsewhere bring them with you.

N. H. S. Entertainment Course.

An outline of the entertainment course which is to be given this winter for the benefit of the senior class of Norway High school was given last week. The following is the talent which will give this delightful series of entertainment. The Hawthorne Musical Club which is to be here Oct. 31, has four members, Messrs. Ray, Colby, Messer and Osgood. This company present a two-hour program, with no two numbers alike, consisting of solos and duets on the standard instruments of a band and orchestra, the cornet, piano, mandolin, xylophone, ocarinas, organ, chimes, steel marimbaphone, Swiss bells and a score of other novelties, such as a mandolin and guitar quartet, characteristic numbers introducing many small instruments imitating sounds of animals, whistles, trains, etc., as well as impersonations of famous men. This is a unique organization of international reputation on the eve of its sixth season of unparalled success.

The second number of the course, Jan. 3, is a lecture by William G. Ward, professor of English literature in Emerson college, Boston, and formerly of Syracuse University. For the last ten years, Mr. Ward has given over one hundred and fifty lectures per annum in our Eastern cities including most of the educational centers. His subjects are of public interest and ably treated. He is a forcible and impressive speaker.

Juanita Boynton, the reader, is the artist for the night of Feb. 8. She has been very successful as a reader and for nine consecutive years she has appeared under the management of the American Lyceum Union or its predecessor. During this time she has given contiuous and increasing delight to her manangement—and this means that she has pleased her audience. In the last eight years she has been on about twelve hundred courses. She has great dramatic ability and reads with spirit and understanding. In her the public will have a treat. With her comes Hazel Dell Neff as a soprano and pianist, and Mr. Yarndley as a baritone and cellist. Mr. Yarndley is strongly dramatic and has a powerful, musical voice. Miss Neff possesses a very clear, sweet, flexible soprano voice but the charm of her singing lies largely in its sincerity and naturalness of expression.

March 25 will be an evening of magic as given by Shungopavi, the Indian. He is of the same class as Maro, who has been so favorably received by Norway audiences but we venture to say that Shungopavi will be more interesting. Shungopavi, whose name signifies "the land of beautiful reeds," is a descendent of the Cliff Dwellers, a stalwart Moqui Indian. He speaks English perfectly and is a graduate of the Crandall school. In his native costume he tells stories of his taibe and sings the strange songs of his Mexican home as well as gives one of his two greatest feats which are "The Cremation of Shungopavi" and "The Vanishing Indian," beside many other interesting feats. With him comes Kate Gordon Munch, reader and violinist and Louise Senton, soprano and pianist. As a reader Miss Gordon is original and refreshing, her program numbers new and often the works of her own pen. She is also a charming violinist. Miss Senton is one of Boston's most talented young women; her voice is of wide range and purity.

The senior class have secured this delightful talent for the benfit of the public who are higbly favored at such an opportunity. But, as the best talent procurable from White's Entertainment Bureau, Boston, it is very expensive and the senior class hope for the hearty support of the public in return for this treat Course tickets may be obtained from any member of of the class previously mentioned.

The initiatory degree will be worked next Tuesday evening by Norway Lodge, I. O. O. F. Visiting Odd Fellows are invited.

The Modern Woodmen will entertain Bridgton lodge, Nov. 13. There will be a brass band, a supper served and some degree work done. It is expected that there will be a large attendance and a fine time.

Those who saw the crowd that "struck town" Sunday night on the arrival of the Berlin train would have little doubt but what a good part of them bailed from outside the prohibition state or had at least been outside.

Hortense G. Gregg has been having a vacation from the ADVERTISER office. The past week she has spent with her father, Wm. Gregg, in Andover. A hunting trip was one of the events planned for a part of the vacation.

There was a birthday party at Katherine Stone's last Saturday night. About 15 of her schoolmates were present. Games were played and refreshments were served, although the birthday cake was forgotten that evening, but nevertheless they enjoyed it the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brown of Lancaster, Mass., have been spending a short vacation with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. O. V. Edwards, at Lindenhurst, North Bridgton, after spending a few days with Mrs. Winfield Sloan at Norway. Mr. and Mrs. Brown returned home on Friday.

The Ladies Circle of the Norway Congregational church will hold their annual sale the first week in December, probably in the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, Dec. 4. There will be the usual attractions and all should keep it in mind as an opportuniiy of securing Christmas gifts.

Next Sunday if the weather is pleasant Rev. B. S. Rideout will give a sermon to the men of the parish. The pastor will endeavor to give a candid treatment of an important subject. An earnest effort to attend on the part of the gentlemen would be appreciated. The ladies are also invited to attend and do a little missionary work during the week.

The pastor of the Universalist church will attend the General convention of Universalists held in Philadelphia, this week and next. There will be no morning service in the church on Sunday next, but there will be a Union service of all the churches in the church at 3 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Sunday school in the vestry at 11.45 a.m. The Y. P. C. U. will meet in the vestry at 6.30 p. m. for song service and a brief meeting before the union service at the Cingregational church at 7.30 p. m.

Richardson—Nickerson.

Saturday evening occurred the marriage of Edwin Richardson and Esther Nickerson at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Richardson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. G. Davis, pastor of the Universalist church. Only the immediate relatives were present.

Mrs. Richardson's home is in Massachusetts but she has been employed for some time in the office of B. F. Spinney & Company.

Both the bride and groom have many friends who wish them much happiness.

The Junior Sociable.

The junior class of high school gave a very successful supper and sociable at Concert hall, Friday evening. The supper was all that could be desired and was well patronized.

The attendance at the sociable was exceptionally large. An order of ten games with two additional extras kept the time well employed. The music was furnished by Mrs. H. G. Fletcher and George Clark of South Paris. Something over $15 was added to the class treasury from this their first attempt at anything of the kind.

Pythian Sister's Ball.

The Pythian Sisters give a ball Friday vening, Nov. 1st, at Norway Opera House, music by Stearns' orchestra. Floor manager Walter E. Currier, aids Julia Currier, Alice Abbott, Mabel Warren, Frank Lovejoy, O. M. Cummings, Harry Mann. Ice cream and cake will be served at intermission.

October Woods.

The frost has opened the chestnut burs,
And the nuts fall lazily, two and three;
The squirrel chatters, the partridge whirs,
And the red-capped woodpecker bores his tree;
Oh, lightly and lightly the birch leaves float,
Like golden butterflies loosed in spring;
And bright as the sails of a fairy boat
The walnut-leaves take wing.

Now come, now come, far down the lane
The asters beckon, the robins call!
The shrunken brook grows broad again,
And leaps in a laughing waterfall.
Over the stile, and over the bridge,
Adown the path where the meek cows stray
By glen and hollow and windy ridge
Let us follow the woodland way.

See! how the marvelous cloth of gold—
A Tyrian tapestry woven fine—
Wide as we wander is still unrolled,
Rustling under your feet and mine!
The breath of the woodland is joy to breathe—
The mingled odors of leaf and flower,
And clustering fruit where the wild vines wreathe
The oak tree's mossy tower.

Softly into the vistaed wood
Through painted windows and sunbeams' smile;
The hushed winds walk in pensive mood
Down many a solemn Gothic aisle.
The golden clouds hang low in air,
Wrapped in their folds the late sun rests;
And the tall trees stand as if in prayer
With their beards upon their breasts.

The Paragraph Pulpit.

BY EDWIN A. RUMBALL.

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" We do not speak like this nowadays, for it is impossible for a religious man to put the world over against the soul, they do not necessarily exclude each other. A soul without a world is about as foolish as a world without a soul. To illustrate: money is often called "worldly," and we are often told that if a man loves money he cannot love God. The fact is every good man I know loves money. We all love money. The great question is, why do we love it? If we look upon it as we should, as locked up power for the good of others and the betterment of our highest life, then love of money is but an aspect of our love of God.

The soul is lost, not by gaining the world, but by letting the world gain us, I mean the world of selfishness and vanity, . A man loses his soul as soon as he ceases to see the soul in all around him, when he lives by appearances. Losing the soul is really losing the world. A real world has a soul which we call God, and if your world is without God, it is not a world, but an empty show.

The heroism of manhood, the nobility of character, the beauty of holiness, and all the glories of the highest belong to those who gain the world and also gain the soul. A good world and a good soul is life eternal.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BUCKFIELD.

In the Brush Factory.

The factory makes brushes of all grades and for all sorts of uses. To a back of Maine hardwood deft-fingered girls attach the bristles and a man at a machine gives the brush its finishing touch.

To the Buckfield factory comes rice root from Mexico, Mexican grass, "kittol" from South Africa, black bristles from Russia and ordinary bristles from China, the finest of all from Russia and ordinary bristles from the western states of this country. The rice root comes in huge bales and costs from 12 to 45 cents per pound; the kittol is a wood fibre that doesn't have to be dyed. Like the Mexican grass, kittol is distinguished by its stiffness, making a brush which will stand up under heavy pressure. The Chinese and Russian bristles are used only in the finer grades of brushes for they cost $2.25 per pound as against 38 to 95 cents for western unbleached bristles.

Brushes are "drawn" by hand and the work is nearly all done by girls. They pick up knots of bristles, shape them between their fingers and dip the ends in pitch. Giving the bristle a twist, they stick them in place. It is this little twist that gives the finished look to the brush, and fills it plump. An expert worker can fill 2000 holes a day. Then comes the clipping which is done in a machine. One motion makes the brush oval lengthwise, while another ovals the ends, and when the brush is drawn back it is shaped and cut.

FRYEBURG.

Frank Parker of Boston, who spent his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brickett, has returned home.

Dr. Seth C. Gordon went to Philadelphia to attend the medical convention.

The marriage of Marian Barker, daughter of Frank Barker, to Mr. Allen of Sandy Creek was solemnized at high noon, Oct. 17th, at the bride's home. The house was prettily decorated with autumn foliage. Miss Barker is a popular young lady and has the good wishes of many friends.

Much Concern Felt.

Ordinary Methods for Treating Catarrh Prove Unsuccessful.

Recent statistics showing an increase in catarrh have shaken the confidence of medical men in the usual prescriptions to safeguard human health from the ravages of this disease.

When stomach dosing proved ineffective, it was natural to look for some other treatment, and it is believed that in Hyomei an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles has at last been found. Breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, its healing medication reaches every spot where there are catarrhal germs, destroys them, prevents their future growth, and soothes the irritated mucous membrane so that relief is felt almost instantly, while lasting cure is practically sure to follow.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, and is sold by Noyes Drug Store, Frank Kimball, Proprietor, under an absolute agreement to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. It is the only cure for catarrh that has even been sold under a guarantee to cost nothing unless it cures, but Frank Kimball has so much faith in its power to cure all catarrhal troubles that he is willing to take the risk, so if Hyomei does not help you, there will not be a penny's expense. Get an outfit at once on this liberal plan. 42-43

The Everett Trial.

Thursday morning the Everett murder case was again taken up by the defense calling new witnesses to the stand. Each new one added some new fact to the long string of evidence that County Attorney Barnes skillfully drew out.

The first witness, Thursday, was Edwin S. Jones of South Paris, the assistant of Grace Thayer, the undertaker. He was called to care for the body of Radcliffe. Found the body at Sheriff Hubbard's store. He was still dressed. Took the remains from the counter and put it on the boards and carried it to Mrs. Buck's, his grandmother's. Here Mr. Barnes took from a basket the clothes worn by Radcliffe on that fatal night. The coat was tattered, the pants wholly in shreds and only the upper part of the union suit remained. There were blood spots on the clothing. The pair of stockings were dirty and tattered. Jones was assisted at the Buck house by Mr. Douglass. One shoe was offered in evidence as being one worn by Radcliffe. A long nail was stuck firmly into the sole in a slanting manner. All of the clothing was displayed on the railing directly in front of the jury. Jones stated that he partially embalmed the body, pouring some embalming fluid into the abdomen. Did not pour any into the mouth or throat. Washed the body. Noticed wound on the neck about two inches long. Placed absorbent cotton in the wound. Placed fingers in the wound but did not make it any larger.

Cross examination. Found bruises and blood on the limbs as well as on the face and neck. Miss Thayer sewed up the wound in neck. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms for the autopsy Sunday afternoon.

Grace Thayer stated that she first saw the body Friday afternoon. Body was washed and ready for embalming. Sewed up wound in neck, took six or eight stitches. Delivered a sample of embalming fluid such as was used to Prof. Robinson. Did not place any embalming fluid in the stomach. In sewing neck wound did not tear any tissues or enlarge the wound. No questions were asked by the defense.

Loren B. Merrill of Paris stated that in the summer he worked a mine on Mt. Mica. Had used dynamite 19 years. Handles it himself a part of the time. The different methods of priming were described. Stated that there was not danger when a fuse was used, if it is long enough.

"How do you use a fuse?" was asked.

"I run the fuse down into the cap which is placed into the stick of dynamite."

Usually use a piece of wood to make the hole, sometimes a spike and sometimes a jackknife. Use 33 per cent. dynamite, which is the same as the 33 per cent. used at the Brown mine. Should say that in a room 4x6 ft. a lighted match would not explode dynamite unless held close to it. Have dropped dynamite down in a hole in a rock ten feet deep and never knew it to explode.

Witness stated that he was a member of the coroner's jury and described the meeting at Sheriff Hubbard's store and viewing the remains. Later he went to the mine.

"State what you saw at the mine," said the county attorney. "The ground about the hole was covered with boards, pieces of corrugated iron, paper. It was scattered in all directions. The lumber went to the south, southeast and southwest, some of the pieces being seventy or eighty feet from the hole. The ground for about four feet around the hole seemed slightly raised. The ground was free from boards for about eight feet around the hole."

"Did you see the stove?"

"Yes sir, it was south of the hole near to a stone wall. There was perhaps half a bushel of excelsior and on top were ten and a half sticks of 33 per cent. dynamite."

Witness also found a half stick of dynamite eight or ten feet from hole; also hasp, priming stick, fragments of the body as well as pieces of patent leather and parts of a felt hat. He also saw various blood spots.

Mr. Merrill stated that at the inquest Mr. Everett said that he supposed that it was Everett when he shut him in the building.

A few questions were asked by the defense.

Sidney A. Thayer was next called and said that he lived about half a mile from the Brown mine. Was out driving the night of the explosion returning home some time before ten o'clock. Heard explosion between a quarter and ten minutes of ten. Visited the mine at two o'clock the next day. Saw Wallace Everett, Charles Howe and James Gibbs there. Everett told him that he followed a man who was prowling about. He saw the intruder enter the little powder house and come out and light a match and when the man entered again Everett said he closed the door and fastened it. The defense asked no questions of Mr. Thayer.

Stop the Strenuous Life.

Weakens the Tissues and Lessens Organic Vitality.

The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country tends towards stomach troubles.

Five people suffer to-day where one did ten years ago with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means at least two out of three in Norway and other towns, should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Nothing else is as safe, yet effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Mi-o-na.

It is not a mere digestive taken after the food is eaten, but a true tonic, stimulant and strengthener for the muscular walls of the stomach, increasing the flow of digestive fluids and putting the stomach into such condition that it does the work Nature expects of it.

So reliable is Mi-o-na in its curative action that Noyes Drug Store, Frank Kimball, Proprietor, with every 50-cent box they sell give a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it. 42-43

No Change Necessary In Rexall Remedies

The new Pure Food Law requires every patent medicine manufacturer to tell just what dangerous drug is in his medicine. Certain periodicals interested in patent medicine reform have declared that the formulas of many patent medicines will have to be changed before the manufacturers will dare conform with this law. These periodicals also declare that the public will never know of these changes, and never know what these remedies formerly contained.

This suspicion, however, cannot rest upon Rexall Remedies. You have absolute proof that Rexall Remedies have not been changed to conform with the new Pure Food Law, because you knew the formulas of these remedies four years ago! The Rexall formulas were never secret. The thousand Rexall druggists have always known all the Rexall formulas and given them to every customer who asked for them.

No one Rexall Remedy was ever claimed to be a "cure-all"—each of the 300 remedies is designed to cure a certain human ill—and does it. These 300 remedies were selected from among thousands because they were the most reliable and successful cures in the world. Far from wishing to conceal the formulas of these remedies, we are proud to tell just what they are, and always have been.

That's where the Rexall plan goes further to safeguard you than does the Pure Food Law. Even now you'll only know the dangerous drugs in other patent medicines, while you have always been able to know the complete formulas of Rexall Remedies!

The Rexall guarantee has been the greatest evidence of the sincerity back of the Rexall Remedies. For four years Rexall druggists have offered to return the money to any one who brought back an empty Rexall bottle or package and said they were not satisfied.

We, as one of the Rexall druggists, feel a genuine satisfaction in having been able to supply this community for four years with one line of medicines which the United States Government by its new Pure Food Law shows were always made right and sold right, and have deserved every bit of the faith you have had in them.

The Pure Food Law may necessitate changes in other patent medicines, but it only endorses Rexall Remedies.

A few of th. 300 famous REXALL Remedies, one for each human ill, are:

FOR CATARRH—MUCU-TONE

The chief ingredients of Mucu-Tone are Gentian, Cubebs, Cascara Sagrada, Glycerine and Sarsaparilla.

Gentian is recognized in medicine as one of the greatest tonics ever discovered. It combines the tonic powers of all known "bitters," with none of the disadvantages applying to any.

Cubebs have long been recognized as a specific in the treatment of all catarrhal conditions. Its action is prompt and its benefit almost invariable.

Cascara Sagrada is especially introduced for its unapproachable laxative properties. The combination of these with Glycerine and Sarsaparilla makes Mucu-Tone a remedy that attacks catarrh from every point and gradually restores the diseased tissues. Bottle, 50c.

FOR NERVES — AMERICANITIS ELIXIR

The Rexall Americanitis Elixir is a tonic nerve food composed chiefly of free Phosphorus, Glycophosphates, Iron Pyrophosphate and Calisaya.

The wonderful results of this remedy are due to the fact that it supplies Phosphorous to the nerve cells in a condition in which it can be immediately and easily taken up by them.

The Glycophosphates, actual nerve-tissue builders, are one of the most recent and valuable additions to this branch of medicine and unquestionably a more efficient remedy than the well-known Hypophosphites.

The Iron Pyrophosphates are the most easily assimilated form of iron which give tone and color, and the combined alkaloids of Calisaya Bark have a tonic effect on almost all the functions of the body. 75c. and $1.50 a bottle.

REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which not only destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, but creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. It is not a coloring matter or dye.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfects the most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles known today. Per bottle, 50c.

"REXALL" ORDERLIES

The New Laxative

If you suffer from constipation or a sluggish liver, we want you to try this newest member of the Rexall family. It has never failed.

"Rexall" Orderlies have all the virtues and none of the defects of those laxatives and cathartics already known. They are harmless vanilla-flavored tablets that effect a re-adjustment of Nature's functions—no griping, no nausea, no purging.

Pleasant to the taste—they give immediate relief.

A trial will prove to you that they are the best laxative and cathartic ever prescribed.

SOUTH PARIS

weeks he had been on the street as usual.

Mr. Maxim was the youngest son of Silas Maxim, who came to Paris in 1788 from Massachusetts. He married Susan, daughter of Nathaniel Harlow of Buckfield, and settled on a farm in Buckfield, where his life was spent until twelve or fifteen years ago, when he moved to Paris Hill. For the last few years he has made his home at South Paris. He was in the Aroostook war and was prominent in military affairs.

His wife died in 1869. To them were born eleven children, of whom ten survive: Maria Louisa, wife of Benjamin J. Turner of South Paris; Henry H. of South Paris; Olban A. and William Wallace of Paris Hill; Franklin of South Paris; Mrs. Amanda M. Vining of Strong; Daniel Webster of Buckfield; and Mary and Martha of North Cambridge, Mass. One daughter, Rose, died some years ago after reaching maturity.

Mr. Maxim was a member of the Paris Hill Universalist church. The funeral was held at 1 p. m. Thursday, and was attended by Rev. J. H. Little.

Mrs. Arthur Hall of Buckfield visited at R. N. Hall's, Saturday.

Professor S. J. Case of Bates College occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church, Sunday.

Mrs. P. E. Hathaway has returned from Waterville, where she has been through the summer.

A number of South Paris people will attend the Universalist General Convention in Philadelphia from the 23d to the 30th of October.

Tuesday, Oct. 15, Mrs. Albert Ames drove seven miles to the Allen Bean farm and picked 14 barrels of apples and was home before dark.

A social at the Congregational church, Thursday, Oct. 24. The young men will be on hand with plenty of money to bid upon the boxes of candy furnished by the young ladies.

The sociable of the Universalist Sunday school at Good Cheer hall, Thursday evening, was well attended and a fine time enjoyed. Music for the games was furnished by Howard Shaw.

Rev. A. K. Baldwin has moved his household goods from the Congregational parsonage to Brunswick. He and his family will go to housekeeping there, and he will enter the Maine Medical School to take the course.

Roy M. Bennett, son of Charles E. Bennett, was taken to the hospital at Lewiston on the afternoon of Saturday, the 12th, with a sudden and very severe attack of appendicitis. He had gone to his work at the Paris Manufacturing Co.'s factory after dinner, apparently in his usual health, but after he was attacked it was decided that an immediate operation was necessary and he went on the afternoon train.

At the Grand Army hall, Saturday night, members of the G. A. R., together with sons of veterans of the Civil War met and made plans to form a camp of the Sons of Veterans. The meeting was addressed by W. Herbert McCann of Lewiston, Senior Vice Commander, who made a stirring and able speech. Rev. Mr. Chesbro and Mr. Hathaway were appointed as a committee to make further arrangements for the organization of a camp. Walter L. Gray, esq., was chairman.

Bolster District.

Roy Witham cut his hand quite badly last Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Gowell and Mrs. Charles Swett were at Paris Hill last Saturday.

D. Grover Brown, who came home from the U. of M. last week on account of illness, is improving.

Mrs. C. S. Tucker, who has been staying with Mrs. A. O. Wheeler for the past three weeks, returned to her home in Norway last Wednesday.

The farmers are busily employed picking apples. Owing to an abundant crop and a scarcity of help many apples are yet to be gathered. Gene Bryant is assisting Mr. Herrick in picking Dr. King's apples.

GRAFTON.

Fred Tyler was in Bethel, Saturday.

R. B. Thurston of Bethel was in town, Sunday.

Will Otis has gone to work in North Surplus as foreman for R. B. Thurston.

Webb Learned, wife and little son were guests at Mrs. Learned's father's, A. F. Brooks'.

Mrs. Hattie Fuller of Hale and Mrs. Walter Fuller visited Mrs. Martha Brooks, Monday.

O. J. Brook of Portland is visiting his mother, Mrs. Martha Brooks of Upton, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Day of Yarmouth with a party of friends were at O. W. Brooks' several days, last week.

Dr. Sturgis of Auburn and Dr. Twitchell of Andover met in consultation at G. A. Otis', Friday. Mr. Otis, who has been very feeble for the past year, does not improve any.

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind."

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle
Show it to your doctor
Ayer's
Ask him about it, then do as he says

As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff.

OXFORD.

Death of Two Citizens.

Early Saturday morning occured the death of Alpha J. Kavanaugh, at his residence on High street. Mr. Kavanaugh was a native of this town. He was the son of Bartlett Kavanaugh and was 53 years of age.

In September Mr. Kavanaugh suffered a paralytic shock of the left side and never recovered to any extent. Some days he would appear better, move his limbs a trifle and talk with members of his family. Then again he would get stupid, delerious and appeared to suffer pain but behind it all he was growing weaker and gradually faling. About three o'clock Saturday morning he suffered a second shock and died at 5 a. m.

His boyhood and school days were spent in Oxford. At an early age he began work in the woolen mill and has worked there off and on for the last 35 years. He worked for Lord and Starbird in the store and on the delivery team. He was a most faithful and trustworthy clerk. His habits were of the best and his honesty and integrity were never questioned. He was a genial friend or good neighbor and a kind father.

Mr. Kavanaugh has been for many years a member of the Methodist Church. He leaves a widow, and two sons, Alton who has a situation in Bangor, Earle who is attending school and one daughter Bertha who is at home for the present. The funeral were at the house on High street, Monday at 2 30, Rev. Mr. Falmouth officiating. The interment was in the Methodist Society Cemertary.

William R. Farris who was seriously ill during the first three weeks of Oct., died Friday night October 18, at his residence on Lake street. Mr. Farris was taken sick the last of September and rapidly developed a low asthemic conditions, against which his feble powers of resistance could not avail. The cord was simply inevitable.

Mr. Farris was the son of William and Harriett Farris, was born in Auburn, and was 60 years of age July last. His parents moved to Oxford when he was but a small boy and Mr. Farris has lived in Oxford until the time of his death. He inlisted at the age of 16, received his discharge on his 17th birthday. He reinlisted for three years but only served a short time before the close of the war. He was a Grand Army man; also a member of the Knights of Pythias. At the end of the war Mr. Farris worked for his father who operated a tannery on the site where the large woolen mill now stands. Soon after the mill was completed he began work for the Robinson Manufacturing Co. and with little intermission has continued to work for them ever since.

Mr. Farris thought a great deal of his family and nothing pleased him more especialey in the last few years than to have all his children around him for two or three weeks enjoyment. It will be plesant for his family to remember the last regular meal he enjoyed at the table which was partaken of at their camp on the shore of Lake Thompson, that the children were present and the father seemed to thoroughly enjoy himself.

Mr. Farris leaves a widow, one Brother, William Farris of Gorham, N. H., two sons, Dr. Harry Farris of Oxford, John Farris of Boston, and two daughters, Mrs. Inez Eaton of Oxford and Mrs. Hattie Andrews of Somersworth, N. H. The funeral services were held at 1 p. m. Monday, at the residence on Lake street. The interment was in a steel vault at Oxford Cemetary.

County Commissioner Edwin P. Faunce attended court at Paris, Saturday.

Tillman Waterman and Prince Jordan were in town Saturday, looking over Mrs. Glovers livery stock.

Frank Martin has returned from his work at Hebron and is ready to patch up your cellars and chimneys for winter.

Several ladies attended the Auction Saturday, and in many cases outbid the men especially on the household furnishings.

Clinton Bumpus was confined to the house part of last week with a lame back and stiff neck, the result of a bad cold.

Chester McAllister has taken possession of the shop on Pleasant street and judging from appearances Chester can do the tonsorial act to the Queens taste.

James L. Walker has finished work at Julius Fullers in East Oxford and is home for a few days vacation. James intends spending the winter in and around Boston.

George Jones jogs his two year old colt, "Outward Bound" every day that it is pleaant. Mr. Jones thinks he is threatened with speed and Mr. Fuller concurs with him.

Mrs. L. F. Wardwell spent last week in Portland visiting her daughter, Mrs. Leland Strong and her sister, Mrs. Geo. Walker. Mr. Wardwell joined his wife in Portland, Saturday and spent Sunday with his daughter.

Mrs. Noe Daniels went to Lewiston, Saturday to bring home her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Davis who is at the Sisters hospital for treatment. The doctor however wanted her to remain another week. Mrs. Daniels reports that she is improving somewhat.

The ladies aid of the Methodist Society held a chicken pie supper at Methodist vestry Friday evening. The pie eaters were on hand and large stories are told about the amount of pies consumed by George Hazen and L. F. Wardwell. The writer can vouch for the fact that they were sick the next day.

Jessie Kay is in Lewiston learning the millinery business.

Carroll Davis is working at the Maine Sanatorium in Hebron.

C. E. Robinson of Boston, is at the Lake View hotel for a brief stay.

Arthur Bumpus was home from his work in Lewiston, over Sunday.

Alton Kavanaugh came from Bangor, Saturday, to attend his fathers funeral.

Mrs. Julia Bussell of Auburn, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Walker.

Will Bonney, [illegible] Chaplain and George Heslop spent last week seeing the sights in Boston.

Mrs. Lucy McKay of Rochester, N. H., is in town for a weeks stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vehue.

James Cook will build a new barn next week, 38x36 feet. Chas. Bumpus and Perley French have the contract.

Elmer V. Walker, driver of R. F. D. No. 1, is taking a week's vacation and Frank L. Walker is driving his route.

William Farris of Gorham, N. H. visited his brother, W. R. Farris, last week and remained with him until his death.

Mrs. Emily Kavanaugh, Mrs. Clarence Kavanaugh and George Kavanaugh, all of Portland, came up Monday to attend the funeral of Alpha Kavanaugh.

Oxford Grange held its regular bimonthly meeting Saturday night. It is rumored there will be a large increase in membership in the near future, providing the new members proposed can stand the required test.

James Glover held an auction Saturday. A. D. Park of South Paris, auctioneer. Mr. Glover sold several horses, harnesses, wagons and many household goods including stoves, clocks, lamps, chamber sets and dishes. There were not many present, bidding was not spirited and prices low.

Stillman True Denner, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Denner, died Wednesday, Oct. 16, at the home of his parents on Hight street. The little child had suffered almost from birth with a persistent form of eczema that resisted all manner of medical treatment. The itching at times was almost unbearable and its little hands had to be confined in order to prevent the scratching of its face. The funeral was Friday afternoon at the house. Rev. Mr. Newport was the officiating clergyman and the burial was in the Oxford cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parrott of Jacksonville, Florida, are at Mr. Parrotts uncle John B. Robinson's. Joseph comes here nearly every year to visit his father George Parrott, his brother Edward and other relatives. Mr. Parrott has a nice berth with H. W. Flagler the millionare winter resort man of Florida. Mr. Flagler is at present building the sea coast line railway with ferry connections from Miaami to Cuba. When completed one can take a car in New York and arrive in Havana without change. This is a very interesting piece of work and some day I will give you a pen picture and sketch of it.

LOCKE'S MILLS.

Fifth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Erank Purrington celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary Saturday evening, by giving a whist party to sixteen of their friends.

The rooms were made very cosy and inviting with cut flowers and potted plants and was a striking contrast to to the cold winter night outside. Whist was enjoyed two hours, the first prizes being won by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowell, booby by Earl Farrington and Mrs. F. A. Frost.

A dainty treat of ice cream and cake fruit and home made candy were served by the hostess, assisted by Ruth Farrington and Ruth Stowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Purrington were the recipients of many handsome presents, together with good wishes and many returns of the happy day.

Mrs. C. R. Bartlett was at Bethel, Monday.

Mrs. Frank Cummings is quite ill at the present time.

Katie Haines of East Bethel is working for Mrs. Fred Penley.

Mrs. Oscar Brown spent Sunday with his son Ray at Berlin.

Chris Bryant went to East Sumner last Wednesday, on business.

Mrs. Ira Swan is caring for Mrs. Frank Harthorn and child.

Mrs. David Foster and Mrs. L. C. Trask spent Sunday in Berlin, N.H. with friends.

The V. I. S. will hold a whist party Thursday evening of this week at the home of Frank Purrington.

The ladies of V. I. S. circle are busy preparing for a fair to be held next month. Fuller particulars will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frost and Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews of Lisbon were guests of F. A. Frost, and wife, Sunday.

George Salls has moved into the rent recently vacated by Oscar Swan, he having rented one of the new houses on School street.

Charles Stowell and Elmer Cummings went up to Ketchum, last week, on a hunting trip. They returned, Tuesday, bringing with them two handsome deer.

Addison Millett's wind mill is on the shelf for repairs.

John Mason who was recently taken sick with typhoid fever, went to the Central Maine General hospital in Lewiston, Thursday.

GREENWOOD.

A Painful Accident.

Sylvester Cole met with a painful accident Sunday. While standing on the rear of a wagon in motion he caught his foot in the spokes of the wheel in such a manner that his knee was severely wrenched if not pulled out of joint.

Dance at the new hall Saturday night was well attended and a good time reported by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan of Norway were the guests of Edgar Morgan and family the latter part of the week.

Nellie Nutting of Boylston, Mass., a sophomore at Bates college, was a guest at our place from Saturday until Monday. Miss Nutting formerly taught school in this town and made many friends. She was a successful teacher and popular with all who knew her.

Old and young, both male and female, have joined the apple pickers for the past few days in the effort to rescue a large part of crop from Jack Frost. Never was help so scarce and there are still hundreds of barrels remaining on the trees in this town. The same condition seems to prevail in all the neighboring towns and there is scarcely a doubt that many apples will remain unharvested this year.

At a recent meeting of some of the young men in this vicinity a club was formed to be known as The Greenwood Athletic club with Stillman Cole as president; Raymond Webber, vice president; Fred Cole, secretary and treasurer. Plans were discussed towards raising money for the club, money to be used for purchase of athletic goods and benefit of ball team here another year. Meetings will be held in the new hall weekly on Wednesday evenings.

Lillian Lord of Waterford has just completed her term of school as teacher in district No. 4. She met with distinct success as a teacher and was well liked by her pupils and esteemed by all who made her acquaintance. She remembered her pupils with gifts and received presents from them. The number of pupils registered during the term was 15 with an average attendance of 14. Those not absent one-half day:

Flora Martin,	Linda Martin,
Charles Martin,	Irving Martin,
Lila Tracy,	June Tracy,
Henry Tracy,	Hugh Tracy.
Harold Cole,

The ladies gave a fine entertainment at the hall Wednesday evening, Oct. 16. A good sized audience witnessed the performance and nothing but good words were heard at the conclusion for those who participated in the affair. The program was as follows:

Music	Ladies' orchestra
Music	Graphaphone
Farce, Not a Man in the House
Song, Schooldays
	Mrs. F. H. Maxfield, Mrs. Chas. Swan
Tableau, What can the matter be
Song	Bertha Cummings
Music	Graphaphone
Reading	Mrs. Chas. Swan
Tableau, Simply to thy cross I cling
Music	Ladies' orchestra
Song, Good night ladies
	Mrs. F. H. Maxfield, Mrs. Chas. Swan, Lillian Lord

The farce was excellent with not a dull line in it but it was the verdict of the audience at its conclusion, particularly the feminine portion, that a man was a rather necessary article to have around the house on some occasions if not all the time.

WEST PARIS.

Chester H. Lane and family are going to move into Mr. Tucker's rent vacated by C. G. Morton.

Leo Marston and family of South Paris are moving into Hezekiah Farrar's down stairs rent.

P. C. Fickett is having an addition put on the back side of the post office building to make more room in the basement for coal, also making another room in each of the rents above.

The L. S. C. of the Free Raptist church are tying a dozen or more camp spreads for the Paris Mfg. Co. They are also thinking of having an apron sale during the first of November.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dunham went last Friday to Greenfield, Mass., to visit their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Hamilton. They will visit their sons in Vermont and expect to be away until after Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Ellingwood have gone to North Paris to live with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Ellingwood. He leased his shop some time ago to Samuel Johnson, who has been having a good blacksmith trade.

Clarence G. Morton is having their household goods moved into Mrs. Elva E. Locke's house, down stairs rent. Mr. Morton intends to go the last of this week to South Paris, to remain until Mrs. Locke has the new wing to her house finished.

Rev. Isabella S. Macduff has gone to Philadelphia, Pa., to attend the National Universalist convention. She will return Nov. 2d. There will be no preaching service here next Sunday but the Universalist Sunday school will be held at the usual time.

Chas. H. Bates has made arrangements to go to Lakeland, Fla., about the first of November, where he will spend the winter. Mrs. Bates will go with him as far as New Haven, Conn., where she will stop off to visit her relatives there and go to join her husband later on.

At the meeting held last Thursday evening in the interest of fire protection for our village, it was found that a good interest was manifested, and it seems likely that $1,000 can be raised for that purpose. The meeting adjourned for one month to make further arrangements and formulate plans for this worthy enterprise.

There was no preaching service at the Free Baptist church last Sunday nor will there be any next week bnt Oct. 3d Rev. S. C. Whitcomb, the Free Baptist State Missionary, will be here and services will be held at the usual time. Sunday school will be held every Sunday at the usual time.

Rev. Mr. Joslin preached his last sermon at the Universalist church last Sunday. Presiding Elder, Rev. C. S. Parsons, will be here next Sunday at the forenoon and evening services and at their quarterly conference, which will convene while he is here, plans for preaching through the coming season will be made.

Mrs. Nellie Hammond recently went to Gorham to visit her daughter there and returned early last week with her name changed, accompanied by her new husband, James Farquar. They remained here a few days, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Curtis, and packing her household goods which were sent to Gorham, where they intend to make their home.

Mrs. Caleb Fuller went the first of the week to Portland with her daughter, Mrs. George Ridlon, for the winter. S. Eugene Hammond and family have moved part of their goods into Mrs. Fuller's house and will remain there to care for the house and stock during their absence. Mr. Hammond intends to keep his rent in Mrs. Annie Emmons' house where the greater part of his household goods are stored.

The harvest dinner and supper Thursday of last week at the Universalist church was a success, both socially and financially. Over 200 people were fed at the bountifully laden tables and the net proceeds were over $30. The Good Will society of that church intends to have a chicken pie supper and sale, with an evening entertainment, about the first of December. The plans for this affair will soon be arranged.

She Did Not Fear Death.

An old lady on her seventy-third[illegible] day once said, "I do not mind [illegible] old, and I do not fear death, but I [illegible] in constant dread of paralysis."

"For some time I have been [illegible] to tell you of the great good your [illegible] derful Sloan's Liniment is doing [illegible] writes Mr. James F. Abernethy, [illegible] Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact [illegible] your remedies are doing noble work. [illegible] your Liniment beats all. In my [illegible] years' experience with medicines I [illegible] none go ahead of it, having tried [illegible] very many cases. I know of one [illegible] man, a brick mason, who suffered [illegible] partial, yes, almost complete, paralysis [illegible] of one arm. I got him to use Sloan's [illegible] Liniment, and now he can do as much [illegible] work as ever, and he sings your praises [illegible] every day. I get all to use it I can [illegible] can and know there is great virtue in it. [illegible] I have helped the sale of your valuable [illegible] remedies about here greatly, and expect [illegible] to cause many more to buy them, as they [illegible] know they can't be beat."

PIGEON HILL.

A Surprise Shower of Tin.

Mrs. Nellie Thayer was given a [illegible] tire surprise party and tin shower, Sunday evening, by 42 of her neighbors. Ice cream and cake with games made the evening pass pleasantly.

Mrs. Edith Bradbury of Mexico is the guest of her uncle, William [illegible] tin.

Fred Corbett has left the employ of the Morey farm and purchased a farm in Paris.

Mrs. S. M Haskell visited friends in Portland and her daughter Luna at Gorham Normal school.

COATS AND SUITS

We can not say what ought to be said of these garments, but we can say that they are made to FIT, and this is what every woman wants. We don't mean that any garment will fit everybody, but by having so many kinds, we are able to find some garment that will.

STYLE in clothes is something you want to be sure of, without being anxious about it. It is just about as easy to be in style as it does'nt cost any more.

MATERIAL is one of the most important things to have in mind and how it is put together. Only good workmanship is put into these garments.

dynamite. Hammered dynamite with a pistol shot at it and set fire to it but did not explode.

Cross examined. Never see that age make any difference with dynamite. Stated that he had made dynamite, told [illegible] that it was composed.

The state rested at 11:10. Dr. Hennig was then called by Mr. Swasey. Had examined the dynamite at the mine this morning. Told the make and composition at some length. It was Atlas brand and B. Mr. Swasey took ten minutes for rebuttal.

Prof. Robinson was asked to take the stand again by Mr. Philbrook. Said he was acquainted with the make of dynamite the former witness testified was at the mines. Mr. Swasey handed a book containing a formula and said if that was the one. Should say it was the one in use in 1899, the professor replied. "What formula are you using?" The professor stated that he was using a recent one sent out within a month or words to that effect.

Monday afternoon Mr. Swasey opened the argument for the defense. He said in part: Wallace G. Everett is a free American citizen though he sits there at the bar until evidence has been produced to show his guilt. Told of the requirements of the law. Then took up the actions of the two men. Told how Everett had befriended Radcliffe. No matter what Edgar J. Radcliffe was. I don't a word to say about it. His life sacred. Told of Everett's good standing with his employers, how he was rapidly promoted by them. Spoke of how carefully he followed the instructions given him. Spoke of the bad opinion that had been formed on account of the paper reports and other causes.

Mr. Swasey said he was surprised at the State's evidence in opening the case. The county attorney broke out in his speech when we expected that he was going to say some thing. Mr. Swasey took up the various features of the case that had been brought up in the evidence and dwelt on them at some length. The evidence has already been given in the testimony published and it is not necessary to repeat it here. He put up an excellent plea in behalf of the respondent taking about two hours' time.

After a short recess the State's plea was made by Mr. Philbrook. He stated that the respondent was to be congratulated that he was defended by such an able lawyer as Mr. Swasey but my able brother seems to be a little hard to satisfy. My assistant has brought every bit of evidence that could be brought and for the benefit of the respondent as well as for the other side of the case. Mr. Philbrook stated that it was the State's duty to present the case honestly and fairly. Every man is presumed to be innocent until evidence has been produced to show that he is not. The law does not require absolute proof. It is a matter of congratulation that for the most part circumstances can't lie. The first thing for the jury to decide is whether the man was feloniously killed or not. Then told of the cause of death. The state invites your careful consideration to the wound in the throat. How he explained the appearance of the wound in throat. Spoke of the testimony that had been given saying that the wound was caused by a sharp instrument. Mr. Swasey spoke of the suicide theory. What motive was there for [illegible]

Mr. Philbrook's plea was an able one. Things were plainly explained and he called various things that Mr. Swasey had not touched upon. He took about two hours and said that he had many more things he would like to say but it was getting late and his time was evidently up.

FRYEBURG.

Benjamin Franklin Buzzell.

Benjamin Franklin Buzzell of Fryeburg, youngest son of the late Dr. John and Susan Buzzell of Portland, died, Saturday, after a long illness. Mr. Buzzell's death occurred at Lovell at G. W. Andrews' cottage at Pine Point, Saturday morning, where he had been spending the summer for his health.

Mr. Buzzell was a native of Portland and for a number of years was connected with the purchasing department of the Maine Central railroad. Later he was employed as purser for the Harpswell line of steamers. During his connection with the steamboat line he formed a wide circle of acquaintances and by his genial disposition made many firm friends. Sixteen years ago he went to Fryeburg and engaged in dairy farming where he made a reputation which extended all over the country.

Mr. Buzzell is survived by his wife who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rensslaer of Portland, and one son John, who is employed as a foreman in the Maine Central. His mother, Mrs. Buzzell, and one sister, Mrs. A. C. Kendall, also survive him.

The funeral was held at Fryeburg, Monday, at 2 p. m.

Edna Eastman has entered Simmon's college at Boston.

Benjamin Warren has lately entered the University of Maine.

Mrs. A. H. Evans and daughter Virginia have been visiting in Easton, Mass.

W. S. Evans and sons of Philadelphia, who have been at their camp at Lovewell's pond, have returned home.

Mrs. F. L. Mark has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., where her husband is secretary and treasurer of the Heffley Institute.

Nettie Andrews, who has a position in the Washington Woolen Mills of Lawrence, Mass., has six months leave of absence on account of poor health. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Owen Eastman.

What came near being a serious accident was arrested by the rare forethought of Calista Andrews, daughter of Henry Andrews of Fryeburg. Miss Andrews in company with Ruth Kimball of Lovell was visiting Swan's Falls and investigating the new dam that is in process of construction, when Miss Kimball's skirts were accidently caught in the water wheel, and Miss Andrews at a glance took in the alarming situation and waded as rapidly as possible into the river and seized one of the paddles of the wheel that propelled the large water wheel that was winding the clothing of Miss Kimball, until some of the workmen came to the rescue.

Haley Neighborhood.

Edward E. Hill has visited relatives in Massachusetts.

Fred E. Haley recently bought a cow of George Weston.

Rich Franklin expects to go to Boston, this week, to work.

Amaziah Sands sold one of his cows to Waldo McIntire, last week.

Amaziah Sands is putting an addition on his hen house as he has so many late chickens.

Mrs. C. Cameron and son Clifton of the village visited Mrs. Margaret Sands over Sunday.

Frankie Haley, wife and baby were at Almon Haley's, Sunday. They are talking of living over to Bridgton.

Quite a little snow storm, Oct. 20, being so large as to leave the ground white. Hard for the farmers who have not their potatoes and apples.

NORWAY LAKE.

Bernard Potter of Denmark is at A. D. Kilgore's.

Annie Gibson of Norway is the guest of Leola Noyes.

Mr. and Mrs Charles Whitney were at Harrison, Sunday.

Mrs. George Frost is gaining slowly from her recent illness.

Mother's club will meet at the hall Oct. 24. Old members are requested to be present.

J. S. Kneeland has packed his household goods and has gone to Waterford to stay awhile.

League meeting last Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected:

First V. Pres.—Maude Wood.
Second V. Pres.—Goldie Frost.
Sec.—Leola Noyes.
Treas.—Ira J. Wood.

According to the constitution of the Maine State League the president of the league must be the teacher of the school so our president is Miss Chaffin.

NORTH NORWAY.

Cort Hunt is working for Ed. Carter.

Frank Morgan is helping E. O. French.

Mrs. Gilbert Russell went to Auburn, Saturday.

F. Q. Elliott had a large lot of apples. He and his better-half picked them.

O. N. Cox dined on green peas and sweet corn gathered from his garden, the 18th.

Many feeble ones:—Mrs. Meserve, Mrs. S. J. Shedd, L. A. Carter and Mrs. Wm. P. French.

J. S. Herrick has returned from Massachusetts and is working on Guy Curtis' buildings with H. E. Hussey.

Rather discouraging to have apples freeze as hard as they did Sunday and Monday night. There are hundreds of barrels in this vicinity to be gathered yet.

J. H. French came from Jamaica Plain two weeks ago to visit relatives, but has not been able to get further than Dr. Stephens at the Lake on account of illness.

EAST SUMNER.

Leona Eastman has been at work for Mrs. Goss for a few days.

D. B. Knight and Edwin Packard of Turner were in town, Sunday.

Mrs. Sophia Robinson and son Don of Autrim, N. H., have been visiting Mrs. Harriet Palmer.

Clytie Bradeen has finished work for E. P. Russell and is at home. Frances Benson is at work for Mr. Russell.

Elden Tucker, Arthur Bryant, Ray Palmer, Allie Barrows, Joe Cary and Bert Andrews have been picking apples for H. W. Bonney.

Fred Palmer and wife and Mrs. Winnie Bonney went to Gilbertville last week to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Martha Abbott.

BETHEL.

The Soldiers' Monument.

The services of breaking the ground for the foundation of the soldiers' monument took place in Monument Square at last Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Twenty-one old comrades of the Civil War were present armed, not with the weapons of '61, but with the spade of peace and industry.

They were as follows: H. C. Barker, S. S. Whitney, Robert Howe, A. H. Hutchinson, J. O. Sanborn, Levi N. Bartlett, M. R. Coburn, M. A. Stowell, Asa V. Stowell, S. N. Littlehale, J. H. Barrows, H. A. Mason, C. E. Atherton, A. B. Richardson, J. Freeman, I. C. Jordan A. S. Chapman, Addison S. Bean, R. G. Lane, C. F. Morgan and A. W. Grover.

Members of the Relief Corps were also present as follows: Mrs. L. N. Bartlett, Mrs. I. C. Jordan, Mrs. M. R. Coburn, Mrs. C. F. Morgan, Mrs. Allie Morgan, Mrs. Sarah Putnam, Mrs. W. F. Kendall, Angie Chapman, Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Mina Harriman.

Our stars and stripes were in evidence waving in the breezes of Peace. E. C. Bowler, our editor and chairman of committee, called to order stating that at birth he was tongue-tied and should be unable to interest those assembled with remarks. But in a few moments it was discovered that friend Bowler had much overgrown that deformity, or had submitted to a skillful operation. He is all right and we see in him a coming Memorial day orator.

Comrade A. S. Chapman followed in prayer, at the close of which the comrades joined in a hearty Amen. The comrades then put their hands to the spades and excavated the soil to receive the foundation on which the monument is to rest, supporting its figure at the height of 15 feet.

Mrs. O. M. Mason, a patriotic woman, begged the loan of a comrade's spade thus assisting in the good work. The same was also carried out by Mrs. Allie Morgan and several others of the Corps. The ocasion was both a sad and pleasant one. Photographer Vandenkerkhovan then took two snap shots and the scene ended.

Caught in Threshing Machine.

Fred Douglass met a painful accident last week while feeding oats into a thashing machine. A coil of wire caught around two of his fingers and to prevent his hand being drawn into the machine extricated his hand with such force as to tear the flesh to the bones requiring the work of a surgeon to dress the wound.

Ed Smith is repairing his barn.

Haskell has started his cider mill.

Levi Bartlett has given up the job on his cream route.

Our "dead village" is alive with daily substantial improvements.

Vandenkerkhoven is taking fine views in town for postal card purposes.

P. M. Billings is on duty again after a week's confinement with a bad cold.

Harry H. Brown has closed his barber shop till Nov. 5, on account of ill health.

Herman Mason has purchased the Coolidge place near the Mason homestead.

Elihu B. Lowell of Rockland, Mass., was recently in town for a week calling on friends.

A. W. Grover's R. I. Red cockerels are going fast at $1.00 each. They are strong, blooded birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marshall went Tuesday to Boston and other places. They will be gone two or three weeks.

The Ry. Co. are making a mammoth fill in the highway at the overhead bridge very much improving the grade.

John C. Anderson has been appointed as assistant on R. F. D. route, No. 4, Bethel, and entered upon his duty the 16th.

Gardner Roberts is pushing the work on the addition to Mrs. Burbank's residence, at corner of Church and High streets.

John N. Swan has commenced extensive repairs on Harry Brown's premises lately purchased of Mrs. Mary Chapman on High St.

C. E. Valentine recently shot an innocent little deer because he was eating his crab apples that would otherwise have gone to waste.

Berlin Mills Co. are destroying the picturesqueness of Screw Auger Falls in Newry to improve the stream for lumber driving. It is too bad!

George Hall of Lewiston, Clarence Hall, Ed Herrick and Charles Cross of Bethel returned from their hunting trip at the Lakes last Monday with five fine deer.

Dana Morrill of West Bethel is said to be guilty of flinging a stone at a deer near his place last week knocking it over and deliberately cutting its throat with his pocket knife.

Bates, one of our village blacksmiths, tramped the woods over till nightfall last Tuesday and when approaching the village within ½ mile of his shop, shot at a large buck feeding in a neighbors oat field. The lateness of the hour probably saved the deer his life.

BRYANT'S POND.

Large Crop of Cranberries.

There is a large crop of cranberries on Chase's Bog this season and there is an abundance of pickers. E. J. Thompson has charge of the picking.

Arthur Burdett was in Auburn over Sunday.

Percy J. Bowker returned Tuesday to his home in Wakefield, Mass.

A. W. Arkett is finishing some rooms in the upper story of his house.

Master Robert Johnson is at Rumford Falls where he is attending school.

Mrs. Abbie Russell was at Rumford a part of last week, visiting John Welch.

Ansel Dudley returned Monday from California. Mrs. Dudley, who is still West, is much improved in health.

Saturday was pay day at the cornshop. The largest amount paid for corn to any individual was to Dana O. Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Williams returned Monday from West Canaan, N. H., where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. Williams' mother.

C. R. Dunham of Paris and Dr. Fowler of New York passed Sunday with Mrs. Mary Dunham. Dr. Fowler would like to locate here during the summer if he could find a house to buy or rent.

Master George Cushman was given a surprise party on his sixteenth birthday. There was a large attendance of both old and young and George was the happy recipient of many gifts and tokens of friendship.

The freezing weather of the past few days gave the apples a close call. The crop has not been injured but farmers are making all possible haste to get them out of danger. The crop will over run the estimate in about every orchard.

HARRISON.

Jordan Bros. Will Not Open Store.

It is now stated that Jordan Brothers will not at present open a dry goods store in the place of the one that was burned in the great fire of last spring. It was expected that they would occupy one of the largest stores in the lower story of the new Odd Fellows' block but they have recently decided that it will not be prudent to stock up while the market is in its present condition. C. S. Whitney is to occupy the store that they were to have, and will open a furniture wareroom. J. T. Kneeland, grocer; W. A. Southworth, clothing; Libby & Southworth, undertakers; J. F. Allen, boots and shoes; the postoffice and probably the Harrison Public Library will also have rent on the lower floor of this block. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will occupy the whole of the spacious upper floor. The stores are nearly finished and it is hoped that the whole building will be ready for occupancy by Jan. 1st.

Mrs. John S. Sawtelle and Alice Berrick of Portland have gone to Bolster's Mills after a week spent with Mrs. E. L. Scribner of Harrison.

The popular mail carrier on route No. 1, Herman V. Kneeland, has been absent on a two week's vacation and J. Will Davis has been driving on the route during his absence.

Apple picking is nearly completed and some of the fruit has been sold as low as $2 per barrel, but $2.25 is reported in some cases. It is confidently believed that the latter price is to be the ruling one.

Alphonso Moulton of South Harrison has recently been absent for a week on a visit to friends and relatives in Portland, Hollis and Standish. He reports very large crops of apples and potatoes in York county. Many large crops of the latter were perfectly green until they were killed by the frost on the 9th inst.

Burnham & Morrill's corn shop has packed about 611,000 cans of sweet corn, which is quite a decrease from the average pack. The season has been a very unfavorable one, many acres of corn did not mature. One planter in Waterford, who had five acres, cut up the fodder without picking an ear. A crew is now at work at the shop labelling. The quality of the pack is excellent.

September gave an unusual rainfall, 9.31 inches being reported at South Harrison, being by far the largest monthly fall for the year. The fall on three days, 5th, 24th and 29th, was 1.50, 1.82 and 2.74 inches. The fall this month up to the 21st is only 2.00 inches. The first snow of the season fell on the 20th, and on the morning of the 21st hills and mountains to the north and west were quite white.

Diphtheria has been reported in the families of A. C. Buck, South Harrison, and Josiah Chute, North Harrison. There is one case in each family. The houses were promptly quarantined and the other children isolated from the patients as far as possible. It is now hoped that no other cases will develop. The case of Percy Buck was contracted at North Bridgton.

The buildings for Camp Sokokis, the new boy's camp to be established on the shore of Long lake in South Harrison next season, are being built by E. D. Gray. Two structures are being erected this fall, consisting of an ice-house and store-room, and an assembly room and dining hall, the latter building being about 24 feet square and quite elaborate, with costly stone fireplace and chimney.

Fred Pitts was suddenly prostrated by a stroke of paralysis while attending a dance at Bridgton last Friday evening. His wife noticed that he appeared to be ill and urged him to seek the outside air, but he became unconscious almost instantly and friends at Bridgton cared for him during the night. In the morning he was taken to his home at the village in an automobile and is now in a serious condition, although the physician gives hope of ultimate recovery. Mr. Pitts is the son of A. S. Pitts, the blacksmith, and has for some time been at work in the shop with his father.

Five of our schools will close a ten weeks' session on Friday, Nov. 1st. The remaining four—the three at the village and the Lewis school in the south part of the town—will close a fourteen weeks' session on Friday, Nov. 15th, the term having been extended on account of an enforced suspension in the summer. It is expected that the winter terms will all begin on Monday, Dec. 2d. Scarlet fever caused the suspension of four schools in the summer, and now diphtheria has broken out in the limits of two of the schools, and it is hoped that it will be confined to its present limits, and that the schools will finish their terms.

Lakeside Grange held a very interesting meeting last Saturday evening. Music was furnished by the Grange orchestra of four pieces and there were select readings and recitations. The entertainment closed with a discussion of the question, "What shall we do to create a renewed interest in the Grange meetings?" The discussion was opened by the Worthy Master and was carried on by fully half of the members present. Many excellent suggestions were made and all seemed to take great interest in the subject. The lecturer of the Grange, who has been sick during the greater part of the summer, was in her chair at this meeting and we hope that her health will be such that she can be with us in our future meetings, as this officer is the most important one in the Grange as far as the literary program is concerned. The dining hall and kitchen has been occupied by outside parties during the whole summer to the complete exclusion of the Grange, and consequently all entertainments, suppers, etc., have been put to one side until the parties move into their new quarters in the Odd Fellows' block. A Grange working without dining hall and kitchen is in a bad fix.

CASCO.

Drowned in the River.

Several from this place attended the Pleasant Pond S. S. A. Convention at the Bryant schoolhouse in Raymond, Saturday, Oct. 12.

HIRAM.

A Flag Raising.

There was a flag raising at the school house on Hiram hill Friday, which brought out a merry company from the village. The intermediate and grammar school classes from the village were present which made the old hill ring with their glad and joyful song.

Henry W. Merrill from the village gave the address. Mr. Merrill is an eloquent speaker and every word was carried away as a treasure. Llewellyn A. Wadsworth was there and read a poem from his own pen and in his own poetical way which was gladly cherished by all.

After the flag was raised and the singing and speaking finished all were invited into the school-house to partake of fruit and candy of which there was an abundance.

C. E. Hill and wife of Brownfield visited at C. C. Lowell's, Sunday and Monday.

H. N. Burbank is overseeing the labeling and packing of sweet corn at the corn factory.

Elsworth Dunham has his barn about finished and it is called one of the best there is in town.

Herbert and Albion Moulton and wife have gone into New Hampshire on a gunning tour for a week.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

Walter I. Russ went on his annual hunting trip to Upton, Friday. He expects to be away two weeks.

Mrs. Osgood Kneeland and daughter, Mabel, have moved from North Waterford to the rent in the "Winthrop Stevens" house on Main street. Miss Kneeland works at George I. Cummings'.

"Muzzy" Judkins, who lives on the "Island," has an exceptional opportunity for raising ducks. He has improved it this year and has nearly a pond full, judging from the quacking. He can dress off a nice duck for you at short notice, that will weigh from 4 to 6 pounds.

There was an enjoyable evening spent at the M. E. church, Thursday evening. The Paris League visited the Norway League. About twenty-five came over. Readings by Emily McLucas and solo by Mrs. Robinson were well rendered. Games were played, after which cake and cocoa were served.

The Second Congregational church will observe their annual roll call Thursday evening, Nov. 7, at 6.45 o'clock. For twenty years Rev. B. S. Rideout has been pastor of this church. As a business man, a man of earnest Christian character, a deep thinker and a plain convincing preacher, he has gained an enviable reputation in the locality where he has worked for the good of all for so many years.

The Everett Trial.

Sumner E. Newell, who was one of the coroner's jury testified that he saw but little blood on the remains above the limbs. Noticed two blood spots near the body. There was no cross examination.

George W. Cole another member of the coroner's jury testified that there was hardly any blood above the limbs. Should think hole in ground was about a foot deep. Thought that Everett said he knew who he was following.

It being 12 30 court was adjourned until 2.30 o'clock. The first witness in the afternoon was James L. Chase of Paris Hill, who was a member of the coroner's jury, stated that he heard Everett say at Mr. Hubbard's house that he knew it was Edgar Radcliffe, when he barricaded the door.

H. B. Hammond was another member of the coroner's jury that said that Everett stated that he thought it was Radcliffe whom he was following. No cross examination.

Another member of the coroner's jury, Hiram Heald of Paris Hill said that he thought Everett made a statement that he knew who the intruder was, but couldn't swear to it. He was not cross examined.

Emulus Brown, the present watchman at Brown's mine, has been at mine since June 20. Said he had all the keys to the property except the one to the stable which was kept by Charles Howe.

One of the padlocks, state exhibit No. 8, was unlocked by Mr. Benson with one of the keys. Being asked to state what he found when cutting away the bushes around the scene of the explosion he replied, "I found small piece of bone and a cord or tendon." Mr. Swasey asked one or two questions.

L. W. Lewis, the next witness, said that he went to work at the Brown mine last November and remained until July. He was laid off two weeks at the time of the explosion. Everett asked him for a lock, said he wanted it for the little powder house. This was some time in April. Stated that the lock here shown by Mr. Barnes resembled the one he let Everett have. Think Everett told him that Radcliffe had been there one night. Everett spoke to him frequently that he had heard that Radcliffe was coming over and do him up. Everett didn't appear to be afraid.

Asked in cross examination if he was sure that he gave Everett the lock. He said he was. Did not know that he put it on the powder house.

Charles A. Howe of Norway, an employee at the mine, said that he had boarded at the cook house with Wallace Everett. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and a little Friday morning the week of the explosion did blasting at Crystal cut. Was boarding at home then and kept horse in stable with Everett's. Went from the cut to Mr. Everett to get some dynamite, wanted two or three sticks. Said he would have to go to the big powder house for it. Did not go with him. Everett took dynamite to him. Was exploding the dynamite with an electric battery. Left battery by a big tree that night. It weighs 35 pounds. The wires on battery are 75 feet long and on the electric primers the wires are about four feet long, also use fuses. Everett had spoken to him frequently about Radcliffe being at the mine. Said that they (Everett and Radcliffe) had had supper together. Everett told him once that Ed had asked him for money. One time that Everett told him about Radcliffe being at the mine, had said that Ed was intoxicated and wanted to fight and he led him home.

"Did you ever buy whiskey of Everett?" asked Mr. Barnes.

"Yes, sir."

He further stated that he bought it frequently at the Cook house. Saw Everett Friday morning after the coroner's jury went away. Everett told him that he saw Radcliffe try the doors of several buildings and then went to the dynamite house, pried off the staple and went in and lighted a match and then he came out and looked around. Said Radcliffe went in and out several times and then when the door closed he fastened it and ran to the office, and the explosion took place. Said Ed kicked and swore after he was shut in.

Witness stated that he searched about hole with Everett and James Gibbs. Found a piece of wood with a couple of hinges on it. Everett found the handle to the damper and also picked up the knife. This was about three o'clock Friday afternoon. All of knife was visible. Mr. Howe said Everett said when he picked up knife, "I never saw that knife before. I wonder what in the world he was doing with that. He must have had it to cut the staple out with. Let's hunt for his pocketbook."

Stated that Everett said he would take knife and take care of it but on suggestion of Howe laid it back. Knife was covered with blood. Everett took knife away Saturday. Witness said he marked spot where knife was laid.

The county attorney produced photographs for evidence which were taken Tuesday after the explosion but they were excluded by the court as they were taken after the ground had been gone over by the coroner's jury. Witness then told about three blood spots. Howe also found fuse in road that had been fired.

He was given a careful, close examination by the defense. Rather a lively discussion arose over the question of whether Everett spoke of Radcliffe calling him by name when talking to Howe about him. Howe said, "He didn't use the name in so many words, I understood that he meant Radcliffe."

"What did you mean by saying on direct examination that he meant Radcliffe?" asked Mr. Swasey.

"Because I understand that the court wished me to designate him that way. If I said Everett called him Radcliffe I want to withdraw it," replied Mr. Howe.

The assistant attorney general said that he believed the witness should be put right as he understood he wanted to be.

"He is being put right fast enough, remarked the court.

A little later while cross examining the witness regarding the finding of the knife, Mr. Barnes addressed Mr. Swasey. "Keep still he is my witness," replied Mr. Swasey. "He knows what he is talking about. He has been in court before."

Redirect.—Found iron bar, padlock and hasp near a window in stable covered with hay or grass. Everett told him Radcliffe was just breathing when he was found.

Here Llewellyn Lewis was recalled. Said he found a short piece of fuse about six feet from the hole, looking towards the mill on Tuesday following the explosion Thursday night.

James W. Gibbs of Paris Hill is a workman at Brown mine. He stated that he had charge of the drilling and blasting and on the day of the explosion was working at Crystal out. Needing some dynamite he sent Howe down to Everett to get some. Everett brought it back to him coming from the direction of the big powder house.

Fourteen sticks of dynamite were stolen from the little house at one time. Witness said he found them under the house, also stated that he helped Mr. Brown search the cook house where he found the whiskey bottles. Had got liquor of Everett. The back of the little dynamite house was 10 or 12 inches from ground. There was a shelf in dynamite house that would come about to witness waist. Had exploded dynamite on the grass ground. It made a hole about six inches deep and four or five inches across. Was the first one to dig into hole where explosion was. Didn't see any splinters.

Gibbs was the last witness called on Thursday afternoon.

After the opening of the court Friday morning George B. Brooks was the first witness called. He testified that Everett had said at his house that if Radcliffe should testify against him in a well blowing affair that he or his family would be G——d——sorry. The greater part of the morning session was spicy and several new things were brought out skillfully by the State's attorneys.

Mrs. Mary J. Radcliffe, mother of the dead boy, said that Everett had offered her money to get out of the way at the time of the well blowing. On cross examination the defense produced a letter signed, "Mrs. Jennie Radcliffe," which he asked the witness if she wrote. She denied that she wrote the letter and stated that it was not her signature as her full name was Mary Jane Radcliffe. The letter was not placed in evidence for these reasons.

C. Guy Buck and Charles F. Dunlap, insurance agents showed that Everett had a $1000 endowment policy on Radcliffe's life in which Everett was the beneficiary.

James Gibbs who was on the staad Thursday when court adjourned was again called to the stand Friday forenoon. Stated that Everett showed him how Radcliffe's body lay. Everett told him that the hips were right in the pool of blood and that Radcliffe rose up and groaned. Saw eagle to damper near knife not far from where body lay. Knife was bloody. Heard Everett say something about fastening a man into the house. Couldn't remember just what he said.

Cross examination. "What are you doing now?"

"I mean for labor."

"I am going to work for Archie Curtis"

Being questioned further the witness stated that he finished work at the mine about a month ago. Also answered other questions as to what he knew about the dynamite being kept in the little house. There were no nails in the little house that he knew of. Had seen Radcliffe at the mine several times.

Here the attorneys had a little tilt on the fuse question which was brought on by Mr. Swasey asking the witness if he picked up or saw anyone pick up fuse with a rock on the end. Mr. Barnes stated that he hadn't testified as to the fuse. A few more questions were asked and the witness was excused.

Moses P. Stiles, former postmaster was the next witness. He had heard Everett tell the story of following the man about the premises and fastening him into the house which was substantially the same as told by prevous witnesses. He was not cross examined.

Solomon C. Buck, an uncle of Radcliffe stated that for the past two years Ed's home had been with him when he was not working out. Had worked with dynamite the past twelve years.

"Did Ed ever work with you?"

The court—"I don't think that is material."

Mr. Barnes—May it please the court I believe that this is material. From what the defense has been asking on cross examination we are led to believe that the defense will claim that Radcliffe went to the mine to steal dynamite."

The court—"You will have an opportunity to put witnesses on and answer it if they do."

"I will then ask" began the county attorney.

"Hold on there," said Mr. Swasey jumping to his feet.

"Why John, what's the matter?" asked Mr. Barnes.

"Have you dropped that question?" asked the attorney for the defense.

"Certainly," was the answer.

No questions were asked on cross examination.

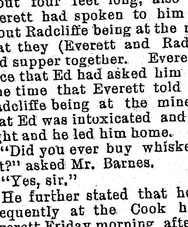

Mrs. Mary J. Radcliffe was next called to the stand. She testified that she resided with her brother Solomon Buck.

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

MISS ADELAIDE NICHOLS

PERIODS OF PAIN

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Irregularities and pain are positive evidence that something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to serious derangement of the feminine organism.

Thousands of women, have found relief from all periodic suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs that period of its terrors. Women who are troubled with painful or irregular functions should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Adelaide Nichols of 324 West 22nd Street, New York City, writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"If women who suffer would only rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound their troubles would be quickly alleviated. I feel greatly indebted for the relief and health which has been brought to me by your inestimable remedy."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints such as Falling and Displacements, and Organic Diseases. Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole feminine system. For the derangements of the Kidneys of either sex Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

A Nation of Cripples; Rheumatism Beyond Control

The Only Hope to Rheumatic Suffers is Uric-O Treatment.

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets had their affliction brought on by Rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see. Rheumatism, from the very nature of the disease, can never cure itself and if neglected is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twings of Rheumatism go to your druggist and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic Specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It seeks out the poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure Rheumatism. Liniments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure Rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place.

There never was a case of Rheumatism that Uric-O could not cure and you should not put off taking it. You can test Uric-O free of charge if you wish. Just cut out this advertisement and send it to the Smith Drug Co., 255 Smith Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y., together with your name and the name of your druggist, and state that you never used Uric-O and would like to try it. They will give you free, through your druggist, a 75 cent bottle, which you can test and try to your own satisfaction.

The Everett Trial.

Edgar was 23 years old his last birthday. First met Everett at Norway two years ago. Next saw him some time later at her mother's.

"Did you talk with him?"

"I did."

"What did you talk about?"

"Mr. Everett said that the officers were not after him in connection with the well business but that they were after my Eddie. He said, 'My best advice to you is to take Ed and skip. I'll pay your way. The revenge will be mine and I will have it in the son of——that had me arrested.'"

In cross examination she stated that she had never written to asking for money. Everett never handed her any money. Didn't ask Everett to keep his insurance premiums paid up. A few questions were asked regarding the well affiair. She did not know much about it.

George E. Brooks, a relative of the respondent, went to his house one day in the summer of 1906 at 5 or 6 in the afternoon. Etta Buck was also there. She asked him what in the world brought him up there, and he said, "they are after me on account of that well business." Etta said, "What well business," and Everett said, "blowing up a well." She said, "who's against you?" and he said that Radcliffe was. He also said that he had been to see Ed at Henry Curtis' and tried to get him not to go against him, if he goes against me I'm in for it. I'll tell you one thing if he does, he or his family will be g——d—— sorry.

Cross examination. Didn't know what Everett went to his house for. Stated that Etta Buck was a woman who lives where night overtakes her. Mrs. Radcliffe was then recalled by the attorney for the defense. Stated that she thought that her memory was fairly good. Did not recognize the letter shown her that was signed Mrs. Jennie Radcliffe. Didn't know who Jennie Radcliffe was. After further discussion the letter was offered and marked.

C. Guy Buck was in the insurance business in 1905 and stated that he secured an application for a 20 year $1000 endowment policy from Edgar Radcliffe.

The Court—Wouldn't it be better to introduce the policy?"

Mr. Philbrook—"We have served notice on the attorney for the defense to produce the papers but as yet he has made no response."

The Court—"What about the application?"

Mr. Barnes—"We have it here and were just about to produce it."

In the spring of 1905 witness stated that he gave Radcliffe a policy and received a premium of $12 42 on it. Wallace Everett might have paid second premium. Did not always receive them from the same hands. No cross examination.

Walter L. Gray was recalled by the State. He was asked if he drew up a change in the beneficiary. To which Mr. Swasey objected. The State's attorney explained that they had made a diligent search for these papers and they were not to be found. Had served notice on the attorney for the defense to produce them, were unable to get them and believed that they should be allowed to produce hearsay testimony.

Mr. Philbrook went on to explain farther the State's side. Attorney Swasey said he was perfectly willing to produce the papers when a proper foundation had been laid for them.

The Court—"Do you have the policies, Mr. Swasey?"

Mr. Swasey—"I have a policy but I don't know which one it is."

Mr. Gray was asked to step aside and Charles F. Dunlap of Portland, agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Company for western Maine, was called. He produced a receipt which was allowed to be introduced. This showed the number of the policy. After some further discussion, Mr. Swasey said: "Well, I'll let you have this policy, although I don't think you have properly covered the ground."

The policy was offered by Mr. Philbrook as evidence.

Cross examination. Remembered of receiving one letter from Wallace G. Everett which he stated was in the hands of the County attorney.

Mr. Swasey asked for the letter and it was given him. While Mr. Swasey was looking it over Mr. Dunlap said that he had just found another letter from Wallace G. Everett dated Dec. 15, 1906. This was given to the attorney for the defense also.

Mr. Philbrook asked who the assignee of the policy was and Mr. Dunlap said, "Wallace G. Everett, dated 1905."

Here court adjourned until 2.30 o'clock.

Mr. Dunlap took the stand again in the afternoon and identified the following letter:

Paris, Me., June 17, 1907.

C. F. Dunlap,
Portland, Me.

Dear Sir:—Edgar L. Radcliffe dead. His death was caused by breaking and entering dynamite house on Crocker Hill Mine, some way by discharging the dynamite.

Who does that insurance belong to, to me or his folks? If it does not belong to me you pay me what I have paid on it and I will send you policy. Let me hear from you at once.

Yours truly,
W. G. Everett.

Arthur G. Eaton, Portland, a life insurance agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Co., was called and testified that he solicited a policy for $2,500 from Edgar L. Radcliffe and issued the policy to him. The witness said that he also wrote another policy for $1,000. In the $1,000 policy Wallace G. Everett was named as the beneficiary and in the other it was payable to the estate. No premium was paid on the $1,000 and it was cancelled. The witness said he had received a letter from W. G. Everett, asking that the insurance be paid to him.

Cross-examined, the witness stated that he had received letters from Everett or Radcliffe but did not have them in his possession as after the incident closed he had destroyed them.

The court told him that he should never destroy letters, "You never know when you will want them."

Walter L. Gray was again recalled and identified the execution of an assignment in which Radcliffe requested that the beneficiary be changed to Wallace G. Everett.

Cross-examined, he stated that Radcliffe was paying his premiums so that he was going to make him the beneficiary in order to protect him.

Frank B. Fish of Portland, formerly cashier of the Equitable Life Assurance Co. in Portland, said that the policy in the company lapsed in February because of non-payment of premiums, but that it was later restored. Received letters signed W. G. Everett regarding the restoration of the policy. Here he identified the two letters which read as follows:

Paris, May 20, 1907.

Frank B. Fish.

Dear Sir:—Why haven't I had notice of the Radcliffe policy, it must be due long ago. Why haven't you notified me? He never has paid one cent on it. Now let me hear from you at once.

Yours truly,
W. G. Everett.

Paris, Me., June 1, 1907.

Dear Sir:—Find enclosed check. The notice was sent to Edgar Radcliffe. Please don't send any more to him, send them to W. G. Everett.

Yours truly,
W. G. Everett.

Mr. Swasey turned the policy over to the county attorney after a short cross examination of the witness.

Dr. Bial F. Bradbury of Norway was called to the stand at 3:30. He testified that on June 17 he performed an autopsy on the body of Edgar Radcliffe in conjunction with Dr. Littlefield. Found several pits on the face and a scar over the right eye. There were bruises on the arms and a small cut on the stomach due to a puncture by the undertaker. None of the injuries were serious.

"The left foot was blown off between the knee and the ankle. The bones protruded from the leg. A piece of skin hung from the upper part of the leg. Part of it was some of the heel. There were no injuries above the left knee, for several inches there were not hardly any bruises. On the thigh I found a wound

TO CURE PAIN.

Necessary to Treat the Nerves Both Internally and Externally.

Nervous headaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, and other nerve troubles need internal treatment as well as external. Get right at the nerve centre with a small dose of Neuralgic Anodyne, which will soothe and quiet the whole nervous system. At the same time, rub a little Anodyne on the affected part, and it will find its way through the pores of the skin to the aching tissues and throbbing nerves.

Neuralgic Anodyne is so uniformly successful in curing all aches and pains that it is sold by dealers everywhere with the understanding that the money will be refunded if it does not do all that is claimed for it. A large-sized bottle costs but 25 cts.

Neuralgic Anodyne is also invaluable in quickly curing colds, croup, sore throat, etc., and in taking the soreness out of bruises, sprains, cuts and chilblains. Made by The Twitchell-Champlin Co., Portland, Me.

The Everett Trial.

in which I discovered a piece of wood. On the back part of the right leg was a long gash in which I found more wood among the tangled tissue. Above the knee cap I found the bone was broken, and here too I found a piece of wood."

Found wound across right of the neck, most of it was to the right of the center of the neck. The first part was upward and inward, then it went to left and downward. The external wound was about three-quarters of an inch long. Ran at an angle of about 45 degrees. Witness stated that it was made with some sharp instrument with one edge blunt. It was a clean cut. As he threw head back could look into throat. Greatest depth of incision was about two inches and a quarter. The shape at the end of incision was pointed.

Mr. Barnes showed knife and asked, "Showing you this knife, I will ask if the wound could have been made with such an instrument?"

"It could have."

The lingual artery was severed. This the doctor stated that he should expect to cause death unless attended. A large piece of skin taken from the throat of Radcliffe was then exhibited. It had been kept in alcohol. Witness stated that he had seen numerous incisions in the human skin.

"Now doctor if an instrument such as this should be inserted and cut the vertebrae and was then withdrawn might it make just the same kind of a wound as this?"

"It would."

The witness then went on and described the examination of the brain and lung and said that in his opinion the boy died of suffocation.

"What did you do with the stomach?"

"I removed it, tied up the openings and put the stomach in a pail and delivered it to the deputy sheriffs."

In the cross examination the witness showed the position that an assailant would stand to make such a wound as this was.

Showing the witness several pieces of corrugated iron, he was asked that if such iron struck a man because of an explosion if it wouldn't make such a wound as found in the neck of Radcliffe. The witness replied that it would not, as such a cut would be irregular and the edges of the skin would be rought, because of the rough edges of the iron.

Dr. J. G. Littlefield of South Paris testified that he was called to the mine the night of the explosion. Found the body of Radcliffe lying on the right side, right arm beneath it, while the left arm was thrown across the chest. Witness then repeated Everett's story and said that Everett said that he could hear the man inside swearing and damning. Witness also attended autopsy June 17.

Cross examined he stated that Radcliffe was dead when he arrived. Didn't notice that it appeared that he had struggled. Being asked if it didn't look as though he had struggled and rolled into the depression he replied, "The leaves and bushes were trampled down somewhat but I don't know whether it was done by Radcliffe or others around there later."

"Would you say that a man receiving such a shock as Radcliffe that the injuries would be fatal?"

"He would probably die if aid was not given him."

"If he regained consciousness wouldn't he suffer and thresh around considerably?"

"I should suppose that he would."

Prof. Franklin C. Robinson, chemist at Bowdoin college, took the stand and identified the knife together with the stomach as the one he received, June 17, from the hands of Sheriff Hubbard. Knife was covered with blood which he presumed to be human. Stomach contained digested food, embalming fluid, alcohol, fresh apples, pork and potatoes. On some of the pieces of apples skin was attached and had appearance of being recently eaten. The potato was cut into irregular pieces, neither showing signs of digestion. Food had been in the stomach before digestion ceased. The witness referred to his notes and told in detail where the blood spots on the knife were. Asked if he could tell whether the alcohol came from Norway or South Paris, said he could not.

On redirect examination witness was asked how much alcohol he found in the stomach and said that there was about half an ounce, and explained that alcohol passed quickly into the system. This concluded the testimony for the State and at 5:15 o'clock Mr. Philbrook said the prosecution would rest.

Before Mr. Swasey opened the defense he recalled Charles H. Colby, who identified the knife as belonging to Ed Radcliffe. W. J. Wheeler was also recalled. He said that the bundle of clothing was supposed to belong to Radcliffe.

Mr. Swasey then proceeded to state his case. He said in part: The defense in this case is all embraced in the plea of not guilty. It is a general denial of the charge of the indictment. My brother in his opening made some statements that seemed a little strong to me. His opening for a criminal case was a little peculiar. He said that the State was satisfied that it was a case of murder, but did not give any theory or motive. Here is Mr. Everett whom I am to defend and I want to say right now that not one single fact will be attempted to be proved with my consent or knowledge, other than the truth.

The facts of the case are these: Edgar Radcliffe is dead, that is admitted. He was blown up, that is admitted also. The inference from the testimony for the State is that Everett blew up the house with Radcliffe in it and then cut his throat. Only Radcliffe and Everett were there at the mine so far as we know.

Saturday morning court opened with the large crowd of spectators manifesting more interest than before in the case as it was expected that Everett was to be on the stand and tell his story. This was not done, however, until the afternoon session. The witness in the morning was Horace D. Tuttle, who testified that he lives near Paris on the Buckfield road. Had been acquainted with Radcliffe for four or five years. Stated that he was "cheesing" Radcliffe some time in April or May, regarding a celebration he had had and he said that it was not the last celebration that he was going to have, that he was going to get some rum and he was going to have a hell of a time.

Cross examined he stated that this was said in a joking way, more or less. Was going to have the celebration with Scott Colby. Witness said he was on good terms with Colby. Did not have any talk with Colby about this conversation.

Henry Colby, the next witness, said that he lived in Norway and was the son of the former witness. Acquainted with Radcliffe. Heard talk that Radcliffe made to his father. He related the talk just about the same as the previous witness. Cross examined said that they were "chinning" Radcliffe.

Leroy F. Everett, a farmer of West Paris and a brother of the respondent. Knew Radcliffe. He had been to his house with his brother. Everett brought him there once when he was sick. May 25, 1906, witness stated that he was in the field harrowing when Radcliffe came to him and wanted to hire out with him. Had conversation with him about well affair.

"What did he say?"

Said he knew who blew up well. Cummings and Edwards had offered him $25 if he would go to court and swear that Everett done it. Said he wouldn't do it.

Mr. Everett stated that he had been to scene of the wreckage. Did not see any fuse in the road.

Cross examined stated that his brother had been arrested on account of well affair. Radcliffe was anxious to talk about well affair when he was in his field. Took measurements at mine June 28. Did this at Mr. Kimball's and Mr. Brown's suggestion. Instructed to pick up pieces of roofing.

The cross examination of the defense's witnesses was conducted by assistant Attorney General Philbrook, who, after an objection and comments by Mr. Swasey, stated that he objected to comments on the examination in the presence of the jury.

Hiram Hubbard was recalled and asked regarding some exhibits that were presented at the inquest by stating that he was not present.

Coroner W. J. Wheeler was called and identified some of them.

W. L. Farrar took the stand and told of some of the things picked up and seen at the time of the jury's review of the mine property last week. Also stated that he had known of two small bottles being brought to Everett while he has been confined to the jail. In the cross examination he stated that things had been changed some at the mine as to movable objects from the time of the explosion to the time of the jury's review. Contents of bottles were not prescribed by any physician. Should say that they were half pint bottles. Did not see any account books and did not take possession of any private papers. Told about the finding of locks.

Superintendent of mines, Henry R. Bacheldor, was then called to the stand. Told about the locks and where he should say they had been used. For 14 or 15 years he had been accustomed to explosives. Told of several explosions he had seen the results of. In neither of these although there was a hole made in the ground was there any splinters or pieces of wood found in the dirt. Mr. Philbrook objected very strongly to some of these instances being brought into the case as he stated that the conditions were very much different from those in the case at bar but the court allowed the witness to tell what he knew of them. Stated that in this case he should say from the appearance of things that the dynamite must have been inside the building when it exploded. Did not think that the building would have been so badly shattered if the dynamite had exploded under the building. Told how he accounted for the drift of the debris. From his acquaintance with steel such as this building was covered with should say that a flying piece might produce a clean cut. The pieces of fuse were handed him and he stated that it was similar to the kind used at the mine. Should say that it had been exposed to the weather for a long time. Did not think that it could have been used the 13th and picked up the 17th or 18th and show as much exposure as this does.

In cross examination he stated that he could say within 500 pounds of how much dynamite was in one of the buildings he referred to. Building was built different from this one. One case he had referred to was underground. In the case at bar should say that the building would have been tipped over if the dynamite had been exploded under the building.

If the man was on the inside should not expect a piece of steel to return and cut the man's throat. Did not see sheet steel near the body nor in the throat. "Would you expect sheet steel to enter the the throat, then be withdrawn from a third to a half of an inch and continue to cut?" "I should not."

Witness testified that in conversation with the County attorney in August or September that he said he should expect to and was surprised not to find splinters in the dirt if the explosion was on the inside.

In redirect examination stated that the fact that he didn't find splinters in dirt didn't change opinion as to where he thought explosion was.

Dr. Hennig, consulting chemist of Brooklyn, N. Y., was called. Has done work in his line for Mr. Brown. Been at scene of explosion. He testified that dynamite was very uncertain as to what it might or might not do. Had dropped it quite distances and it had not exploded and then he had known it to explode by simply touching it. He was asked various questions relative to explosives.

Forrie Everett, son of the respondent, testified that his father had had sickness some years ago and had since taken intoxicating liquors for medicine. Brought whiskey to him once since he was in jail. Takes very small doses. Maybe a teaspoonful at a time. No cross examination.

Wallace G. Everett, the respondent, took the stand about three minutes of three. Stated that he was by occupation a farmer, 56 years old and that his residence was at Paris Hill. Been acquainted with Radcliffe for about 15 years. In 1905 Ed. worked for him four months and fourteen days. Took out his life insurance while he was working there. Witness stated that his money paid all the premiums. Radcliffe never paid him any of the money back. Didn't know that Radcliffe was to have insurance until the deal was under way. He identified two letters that were shown him. Began work at mine a year ago last May, worked there until he was arrested. Worked in mine and on the road at first, then later as watchman, cook and general man. Kept his horse in the stable. Stated that his duties as watchman were to look after things and see that nothing was disturbed. Had been several breaks. One at the big dynamite house, one at the cook house, when $6 was taken. This was reported to the superintendent who instructed him to mark some money and put it away, which he did, and about a week later it was taken, also some syrup. Then he told how he took a garden rake and raked the dirt at the road so he could see tracks if anyone should come on to the property. Kept account of dynamite in a little book.

Told how much there was in the little house June 13th. There was shelf in the little house, 10 to 12 inches wide, and on it were three boxes, one containing 30 per cent. dynamite the other 60 and the third caps. There was a shelf above that he worked on. The house also contained box used for seat, box by stove with excelsior in it, under this box were pieces of sheet steel and also piece under the stove. Stove had damper. The house had shed roof that pitched to the west, door was about a foot from the corner of the building. Outside was covered with steel roofing of odd sizes. Fastening was a clasp, staple and padlock. Identified the clasp presented to him as similar to the one on house. Radcliffe had been to see him twice since the snow went off. Said that he told him on trip to Norway that he liked to have him come to see him but couldn't have him coming around nights. May 5th, said Ed was to see him and two ladies drove up to see him, left Radcliffe in the cook house who went away soon and when he went back to house six dollars in money had been taken. Stated that Radcliffe was there on the grounds the night before the explosion. Told how he followed him about the place.

Had Radcliffe to West Paris in 1905 to see Dr. Packard, called at Ed's sister's, saw his mother there, she spoke to him about insurance and asked him to keep the premiums paid up. Said she would pay him back if anything happened to Ed. Then the witness told how he had discovered the intruder the night of June 13 and followed him about the grounds. This story was substantially the same as had been told by previous witnesses. Said that the second time the man went into the dynamite house that he propped door. Hadn't seen him so he could tell him who he was, supposed it was Radcliffe. Went to telephone and called Mr. Winslow. It was an hour or more before anyone came. Stayed in mill till some one came. After the men arrived started for dynamite house then I went back for more lights. Stayed near the place all the time with Mr. Hubbard. The hole was about as big over as a bushel basket and 6 or 7 inches deep. Witness here told where various of the articles exhibited were used. Did not know whose knife it was. After an hour's examination of Mr. Everett a recess was taken. At 4.15 the case was resumed. Again on the stand Mr. Everett stated that the explosion took place at 20 minutes of nine by the clock at the mill, which he said was an hour slow. His instructions to intruders was to follow them, not disturb them let them do what they would, identify them if possible and notify the office. Stated that he fastened the man in the office to hold him until officers should come and take him. "Did you adjust any dynamite for the purpose of blowing the building up? asked Mr. Swasey.

"No, sir," replied Everett.

"Did you make any assault on Edgar Radcliffe?"

"No, sir."

"Did you by any act on the 13th of June kill and murder Edgar Radcliffe?"

"Did not, sir."

The witness stated that there never was any talk with Mrs. Radcliffe regarding her taking Edgar and skipping. Was always on the most friendly terms with him. Let him have money more than once besides paying insurance premiums. Have not seen lock that was on small dynamite house since explosion. Taking bunch of keys he picked out key to small dynamite house and being handed the locks which were entered in the case it would not fit any of them.

The cross examination began at 4.35. Witness told of Radcliffe working for him in 1905. Paid him a little every few days. Had no particular interest in him. Told of taking him to the doctors, also about paying insurance premiums. Said he also lent him money. Had not attempted to collect from him. Had pleasant social visits from Radcliffe. Couldn't tell how much Everett owed him. Stated that his only reason for taking so much interest in the boy was to help him and thought it might be a good investment for him (Everett.)

Thought that he would work for him some time and pay him back. Mr. Philbrook stated that he would like to ask Mr. Everett if he would do as much as this for his son but the court ruled that it was not admissible.

Mr. Everett said that he had lived at the cook house some 13 months. In that time thought that Ed had been to see him three or four times. Thought that all of these visits had been in 1907. Ed was there once after May 5th and he spoke to him about the money. At first he wouldn't own to taking it but afterwards did and I charged it to him. Told about his being there three times but couldn't remember just when it was. Asked why he didn't report him after seeing him there the night of June 12th he said that he hadn't done any mischief. Everett got a little mixed as to the number of times Radcliffe went into the building the night of June 13.

Asked if he knew who it was that he shut into the building said he did after he had got started for the mill, by the kicking and swearing he heard. Mr. Philbrook read questions and answers from the report taken at the time the coroner's jury was held, relative to Everett saying that he knew beyond a doubt who the man was when he shut the door. One of them Everett said that he thought he had asked to have stricken out when the report was read to him at the jail.

Court adjourned at about 5.42 until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Everett was called to the stand promptly after the opening of court at ten o'clock Monday morning and the cross examination continued. Witness stated that he had used dynamite for the last 15 years. Told how he loaded dynamite. Sometimes used a nail in loading the dynamite. Was not quite near enough to see manner in which the man broke in. Attorney Philbrook produced report of hearing before coroner's jury and witness said he made the statement at the other hearing that man took something and run into staple and pulled it. Some five rods away when it was done. About 35 or 40 feet away when matches were lighted. Staple that held the clasp was clinched, the other was not. Everett was questioned for about 15 minutes and excused.

Dr. B. F. Bradbury of Norway was then called by the defense, and asked a few questions asked as to his previous testimony.

Forrie Everett was then recalled. Witness said that he went to the mine property this morning and got two stones from where he was informed that the body had laid. Here the stones were taken from a sack, the witness placing them as they lay when he found them. Cross examined said Gibbs showed him where body lay.

Horace Tuttle stated that he examined the ground thoroughly the next morning. Did not see any fuse.

Henry R. Bacheldor was next called. Asked what his instructions were to Everett in case of intruders. Had told Everett to personally inform him of intruders unless damage was done. Wished to keep the matter quiet and did not want the telephone used unless necessary.

Leroy Everett stated he knew Mrs. Radcliffe was called Jennie Radcliffe at West Paris. Produced a piece of fuse taken from his field that had been exposed since the first of last November to this spring. This was entered by the defense.

Mr. Swasey read letter from Mrs. Jennie Radcliffe to Mr. Everett asking for loan of five dollars.

At about ten minutes of eleven the attorney for the defense stated that their side would rest. Mr. Swasey added that the bundle of clothing would be entered as exhibits. This contained a union suit, shirt that was wrapped up in a rubber "boot."

In rebuttal L. J. Lewis was called who showed a piece of fuse he had picked up. Objections were raised but Mr. Barnes got around them. Lewis stated he had used explosives for 27 years. Fuse when he found it smelled of the powder. Mr. Swasey asked him if he had smelled of other pieces of fuse. Said he had several times. Knew by experience that fuse would not fly as far as rock did.

Scott Colby stated in spring of 1907 he did not have talk of celebration fourth of July. Cross examined. Effects of Radcliffe left at his house, among them a lantern.

Prof. Robinson told of the composition
